

Three Ags On AP All-SWC

Crow, Krueger, Marks Picked; Osborne 2nd Team

Mr. Heisman Trophy, John Crow

John David Crow, Heisman Trophy winner from Springhill, La.; Charley Krueger, All-American tackle from Caldwell, Tex.; and Bobby Marks, hard-blocking end from New Orleans, La. have been selected to the Associated Press Southwest Conference All-Star first team.

Roddy Osborne, master magician of the Aggie Split-T attack was named in the second team backfield.

Four members of Southwest Conference teams were voted unanimous choices to the mythical team. Of the four, two were the Aggies' Crow and Krueger. King Hill of Rice and Jay Donathan, Arkansas' brilliant center were the other majority selections.

Every coach voting in the poll placed these four names on their ballots.

Several other names received near-unanimous selection. Buddy Dial, pass-snatching end from Rice missed by just one vote.

Clyde Ledbetter, Baylor guard led the balloting in that position with four votes. Porker fullback Gerald Nesbitt and Horned Frog halfback Jimmy Shofner also collected four votes.

First Team

- LE Buddy Dial, Rice
- LT Charley Krueger, A&M
- LG Clyde Ledbetter, Baylor
- C Jay Donathan, Arkansas
- RG Tom Koenig of SMU; Matt Gorges, Rice
- RT Larry Whitmire, Rice
- RE Bobby Marks, A&M
- B John David Crow, A&M
- B King Hill, Rice
- B Gerald Nesbitt, Arkansas
- B Jimmy Shofner, TCU

Second Team

- LE Willard Dewveall, SMU
- LT Garland Kennon, Texas
- LG Don Wilson, Texas
- C Louis Del Homme, Texas
- RG Jerry Ford, Arkansas
- RT Bobby Jack Oliver, Baylor
- RE Maurice Doke, Texas
- B Roddy Osborne, A&M
- B Don Meredith, SMU
- B Donnie Stone, Arkansas
- B Buddy Dike, TCU

Otherwise, places on the team drew some close voting.

Bobby Marks, wingman for the Cadets was chosen as the right end for the dream team.

Larry Whitmire of Rice was placed alongside Krueger as the other tackle.

There was a tie for the other guard slot, with Matt Gorges of the Owls and Tom Koenig of SMU vying for the position.

All players are seniors with the exception of Dial and Koenig, who are both juniors.

Willard Dewveall of Southern Methodist and Maurice Doke of Texas were ends on the second team, with Garland Kennon of the Longhorns and Bobby Jack Oliver of Baylor at tackles.

Don Wilson of Texas and Jerry

Osborne, the Grim Keeper

Ford of Arkansas were named guards on the second unit.

Louis Del Homme of the Steers was chosen as second team center.

Don Meredith and Roddy Osborne were both voted to the alternate team along with Buddy Dike of TCU and Donnie Stone, Razorback halfback.

The league had more high-ranking quarterbacks and fullbacks than in many years. A star like Larry Hickman wound up on the honorable mention list.

Of the 23 men on the two-unit squad, four were Aggies; four were Owls; four were Razorbacks; and four were Longhorns. Southern Methodist landed three men on the squad. Baylor and TCU each placed two players.

Texas failed to land a player on the first team. This was not considered too unusual, although Texas was second in the conference race. It was just that the Longhorns presented more of a team effort than anybody else.

Bryant Signs Pact Gets Slight Raise

Paul "Bear" Bryant accepted today a 10-year contract to return to his alma mater as head football coach and athletic director at the University of Alabama. He will receive $17,500 a year.

Bryant gave up the last seven years of a long-term Texas A&M contract that reportedly called for $15,000 a year.

Dr. Frank A. Rose, president-elect at Alabama, announced the salary terms from his hospital room at Lexington, Ky. Rose said Bryant will take over Jan. 1 and have full authority to select his staff.

Mont Likes Ags Over Vols

Coach Tommy Mont, whose Maryland football team lost to both A&M and Tennessee, says he thinks the Aggies will beat the Volunteers in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 28.

Texas A&M defeated Maryland, 21-13, last September and Tennessee whipped the Terrapins, 16-0, in mid-season.

"I'm picking the Aggies in a real tight game," Mont told Sports Editor Tom Siler of the Knoxville News-Sentinel today in a long distance telephone interview.

Mont said he gave the edge to the Texans because Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant would have a month in which to set up a defense for Tennessee's single wing attack.

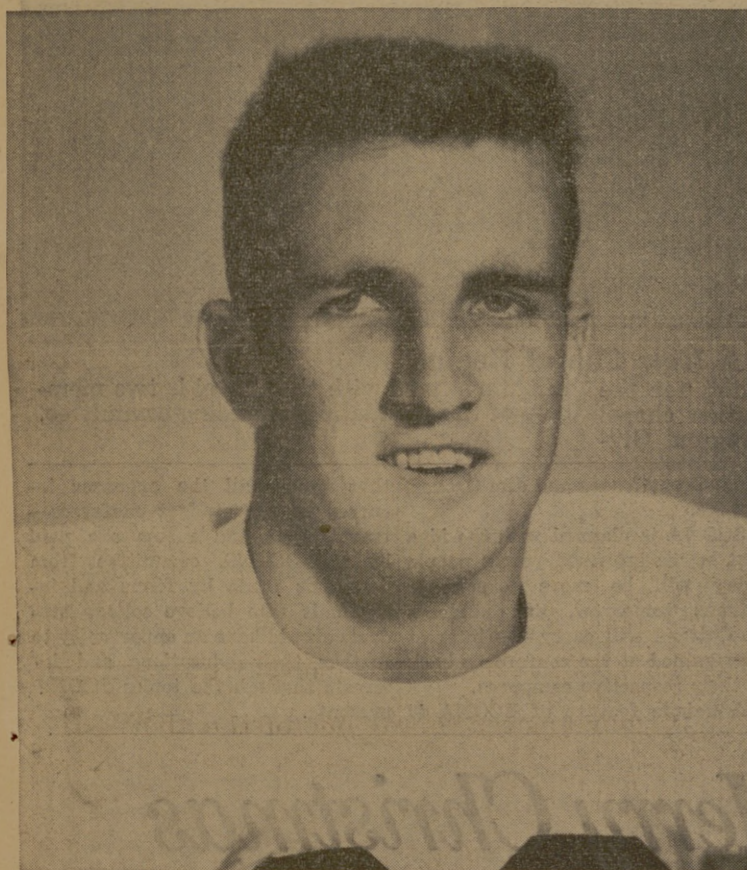

"That gives the boys plenty of time to get acquainted with the single wing, forget about the split-T defenses they've been using, and concentrate on the Tennessee systems," the Maryland coach continued. "This extra time, I think, explains why Tennessee has never done too well in bowl games."

Tennessee's record in bowl games is three victories, seven losses.

In comparing the two teams, Mont gave Tennessee an edge in kicking and reserve linemen. He said he thought the Aggies had better reserve backs.

"Bryant hasn't got a single long distance threat as good as Bobby Gordon, but he has more good backs than Tennessee," Mont declared.

TCU Nixes Bowl Bid

Abe Martin's Texas Christian University Horned Frogs yesterday declined an offer to play in the Cigar Bowl Classic at Tampa, Fla. on Dec. 28.

The Froggies finished the season with a 4-5-1 record, led by hard-rushing Jimmy Shofner. They downed mighty Ohio State at the beginning of the season.
