

"Buck for Buddy" Begins Monday

BY JOE BUSER

Student Senate sponsored Campus Chest starts solicitation on the campus Monday with a dollar an Ag its goal.

The idea of a single, unified fund drive is new to Aggies, not so the idea of giving to help a buddy in need. Ags have always taken care of their own. But next week, chances are that none of our number will be in need—and consequently, some may be tempted to pass up their single chance to donate to the Chest.

However, money raised next week may be used on the fellow who sits next to you in class, or stands next to you in the stands. Or it may be used on the fellow that stands next to him.

The purpose of the Chest is to have a sum of money on hand so when it's needed, no last minute shakedown is necessary.

Of course, we hope the money is never used. But in years past, it was needed—and no one can be assured that this year, he won't be the one that needs it.

Christmas is the season of giving. And this Christmas, Aggies have an opportunity to give someone the help he may desperately need before the year is over.

At A&M, everything is the biggest in the world; our bonfire, our Corps, our band knows no equal. And likewise, our brotherly feeling towards other Aggies knows no equal. But we need not wait until some Ag is down to come to his aid—isn't it better to be prepared ahead of time?

Monday is the first day of "Buck for a Buddy" week—if every man does his part and contributes what he can, Texas Aggies will be prepared to take care of their own kind, should one fall victim to disaster.

An Appeal For Neatness

An Appeal to Civilian Students:

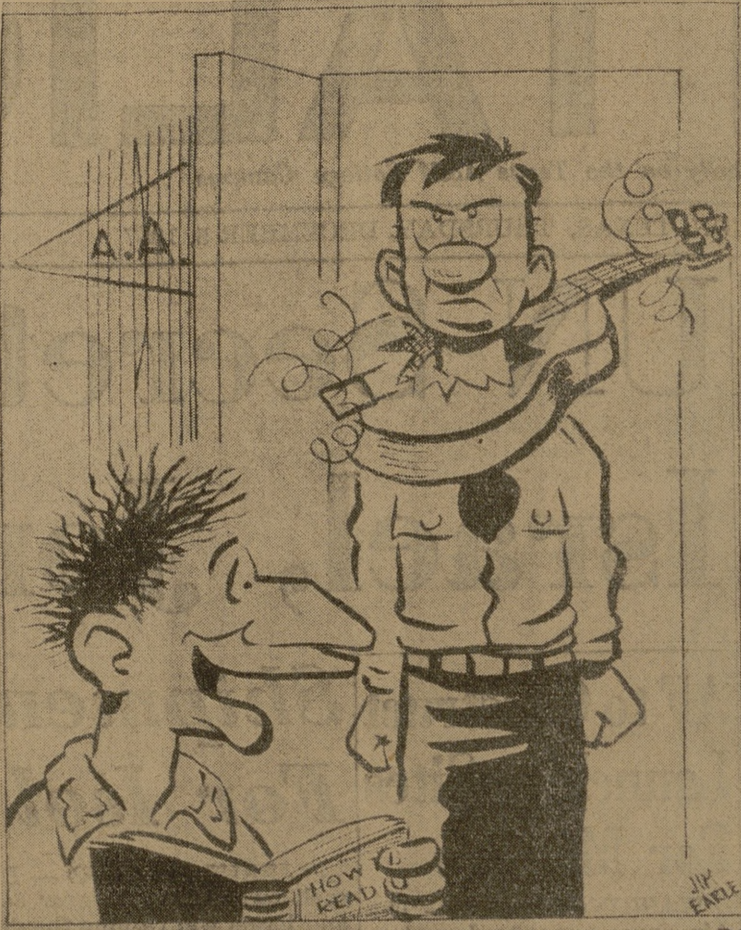

One of the main responsibilities of your Civilian Student Council is developing the prestige of the Civilian Aggies. This is not a job which can be accomplished by the few men who are actually on your council, but rather requires the cooperation and support of each student. With this in mind, your council asks your support in correcting a fault which has too long been charged against Civilian Aggies.

It is often charged that Civilians are sloppy and careless about their personal appearance. While this is certainly not true of most, the careful observer must admit that there are some students who, at times, allow themselves to become rather sloppy.

Certainly the Council does not expect Civilians to start wearing suits to class and throw away all their other clothes, but a shave, neat haircut and clean clothes should not be beyond the reach of anyone. We do expect each man to appear at his best in whatever clothes he chooses to wear. If each Civilian will take the time and effort to see that he is presentable and that his clothes are appropriate, he will help increase the prestige of Civilian Aggies as a whole and gain dividends of pride in himself and respect of his associates.

Letters to the Editor

Editor
The Battalion

No longer are the Aggies No. 1 in the nation or conference, but they still deserve the praise for the nation's best. Instead, there have been many remarks made, by people who call themselves Aggies, running down this team. I remember when, as a freshman, those fighting Aggies had a 1-9 record, but they were still the best to the men of their school. Since that time, we have again become the football power we once were.

The Aggie Spirit has always been known to back its team, win or lose, but many are beginning to act like the people of "sip-land" when we are outscored.

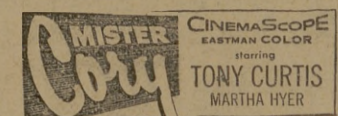

Whether "Ole Army is going to Hell," or not, lets never say that about the good ole Aggie Spirit!

WIN $25 CASH!

Dream up your own questions for future "Personality Power" quizzes. We'll pay $25 for each question used in this college ad campaign. Send questions with name, address, college and class to: Camel Quiz, Box 1935, Grand Central Station, New York 17, N.Y.

If you answered "No" to all questions, you obviously smoke Camels — a real cigarette. Only 6 or 7 "No" answers mean you better get onto Camels fast. Fewer than 6 "No's" and it really doesn't matter what you smoke. Anything's good enough!

But if you want to enjoy smoking as never before, switch to Camels. You'll find nothing else tastes so rich, smokes so good and mild. Could be that's why more people today smoke Camels than any other cigarette. Love that Camel!
