

Reds Tie NL Fielding Mark

The Cincinnati Redlegs, better known for slugging than defensive ability, tied a National League fielding record in 1957 with a big boost from shortstop Roy McMillan and third baseman Don Hoak.

The official fielding averages released today showed that the Redlegs field .982, making only 107 errors in 5,848 chances. This tied the club mark set by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1944 and later equalled by the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1952.

Wake Forest Power Too Much For Aggs; Defense-Minded Deacons Win 68-46

Duffy Nixes Aggs, 'Loves MSU'

By GARY ROLLINS

Duffy Daugherty, who has been courted most fervently in the past few days by Texas A&M officials as the prospective successor to Coach Paul Bryant, passed up the offer of athletic director head coach yesterday, stating "My heart belongs to Michigan State University."

With his refusal, the Aggies remain "coachless," but the Athletic Council will now refer to their "select list" of prospective coaches and attempt to set up possible interview dates with them.

Although there has not been an official announcement, some of the names still rumored in top contention are UCLA's Red Sanders, Mississippi State's Wade Walker, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, and Arizona (Tempe State) University's Dan Devine.

Dodd is presently in Houston, fulfilling a speaking engagement, and he will no doubt be contacted, in the same manner as Duffy Daugherty.

Powerhouse Wake Forest capitalized on Aggie miscues and shooting inaccuracy to coast to a 68-46 victory over the Cadets in Winston-Salem, N. C. last night.

The Deacons played a defensive-type basketball game, expecting the same sharpshooting the Farmers displayed Monday night in their contest with Memphis State. They took the lead after two minutes, and never relinquished it.

The Aggies were bothered by Wake Forest's zone and were unable to hit from outside the free throw circle. Neil Swisher, junior guard from Victoria led the scoring, bucketing 15.

Wake Forest led at the halftime, 34-28, and Bobby Rogers' eagers were unable to score a field goal until 10 minutes deep in the second half. By that time, the mighty Deacons had increased the margin to 44-29.

In the final five minutes of the contest, the Aggies went into a full court press, but some accurate shooting of Olin Broadway and Dave Budd brought the Deacon offense through, never allowing the scoring pace to lag. The two Wake Forest players were especially effective in shooting from the side-court. Charley Forte, Deacon guard punished the Cadets from the free throw line, sinking eight of eight charity attempts in the final five minutes of play.

Carr was high scorer in the game with 20 points and Budd, also of the Deacons was second with 18. Swisher's 15 was third.

The Aggies, with a 1-2 record face equally powerful University of Richmond in Richmond, Va. tonight.

Saturday afternoon, they visit Columbus, Ohio to help the Buckeyes open their new coliseum before a regional television audience.

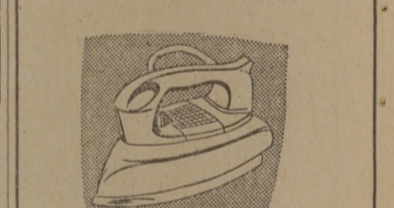

Dempsey Receives Walker Award

The old heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey, was as thrilled as a youngster fighting his first event today when he learned that he had been voted the James J. Walker Award for long and meritorious service to boxing.

"That's great, that's wonderful" said Dempsey, who through the years has been showered with just about all the honors boxing has to offer.

"I consider it a great honor and privilege," Dempsey said.
