18,440

THE BATTALLON SUPPORT CAMPUS CHEST

Number 64: Volume 57

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1957

Price Five Cents

Spirit of the Season

Christmas is only 12 days away, and Aggies week freshman and sophomore Cadets behave only one more week in Aggieland. To gan falling out and singing carols for upperget into the spirit of the Yule season, this classmen before retiring for the night

CSC Charges Senate With Neglect of Duty and committed Poland and Czecho-slovakia to renounce atomic weatons if West and East Germany age to do so. Birth French receipt to the left.

letter to the Student Senate charging that body with neglect of their responsibility to represent the en- John Hagler, in a private conversators' action making military training compulsory.

pulsory military question. Both mo- know whether it would be good everyone has been orientated."

The Senate's commendation was passed Dec. 5 with only two of the student body as a whole." three Civilian representatives on the Senate opposing the motion. At Corps Committee the Civilian body's meeting Dec. 5, they showed disapproval of the Discusses Code board's action.

the majority (Civilians) was so ap- conception last year.

The Council also moved to request audience before the board of Directors at their next meeting to voice Civilian opinion on the complex military question. But more distributed to the class when we feel more distributed to the students again.

The Council also moved to request audience before the board of Council has every right to request a referendum, as much as any other group has. But I actually don't port to the class when we feel hydrogen weapons and a halt to all tributed to the students again. Hagler said last night that "so operational.

Council Bresident Bill McKown At the Civilian council's invitatold the Civilians that by no ma- tion, four members of the Corps thematics can it be said that the Honor Corp Orientation Committee Senate represented 50 per cent of last night explained the code and the students when the feeling of the progress it had made since its

The Corps representatives, Ray

Deck the Halls . . .

Only it's with crepe paper—not boughts of holly. These two freshmen, left to right, Wayne Dunlap and Giles Dodson, seem to have the real Christmas spirit, as far as decorations go. Just looking at the red and green maze they are creating in their room, one wonders if their motive might be camouflage.

"Representatives, such as the Bowen, V. E. Hawes, Bob Burkhead pure propaganda conceptions," but Civilian Student Council members voted last night to write a letter to the Student Senate charge.

Representatives, such as the last of length the code accepted by Corps students, regardless of personal length the code accepted by Corps students, regardless of personal length the code accepted by Corps students, regardless of personal length the code accepted by Corps students, regardless of personal length the code accepted by Corps students, regardless of personal length the code accepted by Corps students. He said that Corps Commander made for future changes.

They also explained the general tire student body in their resolution commending the Board of Direction, said "you have every right to plans for orientation of the Corps ton, said "you have every right to plans for orientation of the Corps NATO partners." call for a referendum on the Sen- but could not state "when and

The Corps seniors also were un-

Briefs SCONA III

charged in a letter to French next week's summit meeting sile satellite expert. was called to "accelerate war prep-will not be enough to enable some other the challenge of space. nations to catch up with recent declared they "will not change the fact the intercontinental ballistic hard-hitting mobile, futuremissiles have made the United minded army.

contents were made public last hand, "the mating of the guided

The letter contained Soviet proposals for easing world tension and committed Poland and Czechoslovakia to renounce atomic wea-

First French reaction to the letter was that it was "inspired by breadth of it and the reservations French government spokesman said no reply will be made without consultation with France's

The Soviet Premier asked the where" the code would become French government to try to inable to answer a councilman's ques- ing of a nonaggression agreement tion whether all the Corps would by the NATO powers with the terday. have a chance to express desires members of the Soviet bloc's War-

(See COUNCIL, Page 3) saw Pact. Reds Warn of War InLetterCampaign

LONDON, - (AP) - The Soviet | Soviet Premier Bulganin to Westcreased.'

The announcement by Radio The messages generally have covfour days before a NATO summit toward peace. meeting in Paris.

The broadcast was beamed to the West on Moscow's English-language service.

It said the new notes declared. "Action must be taken at once to prevent a war and improve relations between countries."

Word of the mass distribution of new notes came hard on the heels of a flurry of letters from ome cloudiness this afternoon and a "very dangerous situation." evening is the College Station fore- Bulganin's letters have been be 45 degrees.

Weather Today

was 46 degrees.

Union — stepping up its letter- ern government heads. Recipients writing campaign-said last night of the letters included President it is sending notes to all U.N. Eisenhower, Prime Minister Macmembers warning that "the danger | millan, French Premier Felix Gailof nuclear war has greatly in- lard and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Moscow coincided with a U.N. de- ered the same Soviet proposals for bate in New York on a Soviet call renouncing nuclear weapons and for peaceful coexistence and came tests and other actions as steps

> The letters to Gaillard and Macmillan were made public last night.

Bulganin told Gaillard the NATO meeting was called "to accelerate war preparations" of the Western Alliance and urged France to try to influence other NATO members to consider Soviet proposals.

The letter to Macmillan said it is "either irresponsible or downright provocative" for U.S. planes to carry hydrogen bombs on patrols from British bases. It declared that countries where Amer-Fair today and tonight, with ican planes are based were put in cast. The high expected today is viewed in the West as Soviet ef-65 degrees, and tonight's low will forts to influence the NATO meeting opening in Paris Monday.

The high temperature reading First British reaction to the an-The low this morning—at 5:30— to U.N. members was a diplomatic shrug of the shoulders.

out Christmas cards."

Bulganin Sees National Security, Special Meeting NATO Meet As Space Challenged Called Tonight

Army Missile Chief

The Army's guided missile program can have only one PARIS, —(AP)—Soviet Pre-mier Nikolai Bulganin has special weapons told a SCONA III audience last night.

Maj. Gen. John P. Daley is chief of research and develop-Premier Felix Gaillard that ment for the Department of Army and is the Army's top mis-

He told an overflow crowd in the Memorial Student arations" of the Western Alliance. Center Ballroom there are two challenges posed by guided begin the project as soon as pos-Bulganin said such preparations missiles. One is the challenge to national security and the

The Army, Daley said, has an "active missile program Soviet scientific advances. He also to provide highly effective air defense weapons and to provide missiles needed by the States as vulnerable as Europe."

The letter one of a series addressed by Bulganin to several given the United States the means heads of government was deliver-ed to Gaillard Wednesday. Its space, Daley revealed. On the other > is changing the nature of warfare." Chest Drive, reported last night however. The mating has brought on ma- that $400 had been turned in to support. The first is demonstrated the drive. in the vastly increased level of air defense which is possible, the mis- ment at the slow-up of collections sileman said. During World War II "all we expected to do was kill a percentage of the planes attacking a target, this weekend. but now our objective is to kill (See MISSILES, Page 3)

Student Ideas Again Needed

Religious Emphasis Week set by the chest. Bulganin also proposed the sign- this year, J. Gordan Gay, secretary of the YMCA, said yes-

> Interest locaters are forms listing major topics for discussion during RE Week. Students are asked to check their preferences of discussion topics listed under the major headings.

Noted clergymen from all over the country will lead discussion groups each night over such timely subjects as "Religion and World Affairs," "God in My Life," "Man's Relation to Man," and "Religion-Sex and Marriage."

Forms will be distributed to Corps, Civilian and married students and also faculty members, said Gay. Students are asked to fill out the forms and bring them by the YMCA not later than Wed-

8 Freshmen Taken Into Phi Eta Sigma

Eight freshmen were recently initiated into the A&M chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, a national scholastic honor society for freshmen.

Gus Alexander, San Angelo; Jackie Clifton Davis, Waco; Thomas E. Downs, Brookeland; Charles R. Moore, Houston; James Frank Pierce Jr., Blackwell, Okla.; William G. Shenkir, San Antonio; Julian Torres, Galveston; and Mac Tripp, Odessa, were the students

Phi Eta Sigma was founded at the University of Illinois in 1923 to encourage scholarship among freshmen and to honor those making outstanding records.

Membership is an earned honor. Members must have an average of vesterday was 58 degrees at 3 p. m. nouncement of the Soviet message 2.5 grade points per semester hour or better.

"It is the greatest scholastic Relative humidity of 91 per cent was recorded at 8 this morning, British official said. "Perhaps this C. H. Ransdell, associate dean of and the temperature was 48 de- is the Soviet substitute for sending the Basic Division and faculty ad-

Street repair and ways of financing the work will be studied by the College Station City Council tonight at a special meeting called by Mayor Ernest Langford in an effort to

For the past few weeks, councilmen have been studying reports on approximate costs.

Chief concern of the group is ways of financing such work.

Tonight members of the council will compare notes and try to decide on a definite plan. The measure will have to be subjected to Charlie (Woody) Rice, solicita- the public and receive its approval missile and the nuclear warhead tion chairman for the Campus before any action can be taken, jor changes in air defense and fire him after the first four days of nance costs of the repair would call for doubling present property Rice expressed some disappointvaluations based on 25% of actual value, well below average for the after the drive got off to a rousstate. ing start Monday. He said, how-

A rise to 50% valuation would ever, he expected a large collection mean only about a 1% rise in taxes. With the 50% valuation, the city Several dorm representatives have some money on hand which could raise a bond of $500,000, has not yet been turned in, Rice which would be adequate to pay the said, so the picture is not quite so city's share in modernizing city streets.

The Campus Chest was set up All citizens of College Station this year as an opportunity for who are interested in the project students to help any Aggie who are invited to attend the meeting may need money for an emergency and express their views, Ran Bosduring the year. A goal of $7000 well, city manager, said.

- or one dollar per Aggie - was | The meeting wil be held at the City Hall, beginning at 7 p.m.

Honorable Mention at ATS

Mrs. Rene Olds was awarded a special honorable mention at the sixth annual Aggie Talent Show Tuesday night in Guion Hall. She also drew more applause from the crowd than any other performer.