

Foreign Students Entertained Sunday At Christmas Party

International students at A&M and their wives were entertained Sunday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Harrington.

The affair was the annual Christmas party sponsored by the International Relations Groups of the American Association of University Women and the Campus Study Club.

Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Harrington in greeting guests was Mrs. Robert Bossler, chairman of the AAUW group. Mrs. John Calhoun and Dr. Meta Brown registered the guests.

Under the direction of Bill Turner and Joe Woolket, with Mrs. A. B. Medlen at the organ, the group enjoyed Christmas caroling. A quartet from the Singing Cadets also sang several selections.

Dr. John Q. Anderson of the A&M English Department and a past president of the Texas Folklore Society entertained the guests with folk songs to his guitar accompaniment.

Refreshments of hot spiced punch and coconut balls were served from a table overlaid with a red net Christmas cloth and centered with an arrangement of holly and red tapers.

Mrs. Gordon Gay, Mrs. Jack Gray, Mrs. Bennie Zinn and Mrs. D. W. Williams presided at the tea table.

Members on the planning committee were Mrs. W. H. Ritchey, decorations; Mrs. W. L. Russell and Mrs. John Ashton, refreshments; Mrs. Fred Smith, program; Mrs. Horace Blank and Mrs. John Calhoun, hospitality.

Industrial Engineering Wives Club officers for the spring semester are Virginia Eason, president; Bennett Ruiz, vice president; Jo Ann Garretson, secretary; Ann McElroy, treasurer; Dot Porter, reporter; Ruth Erwin, Aggie Wives Council representative; and Ditsy Bailey, historian.

Baytown Key Club Speaks to Kiwanis

"There is no limit to what a man can do if he does not care who gets credit for it."

This is the theme of Baytown's Robert E. Lee High School Key Club who presented a program on their work for local Kiwanians yesterday.

James Rhodes, president of the Key Club, told Kiwanis members that his club was a service organization similar to Kiwanis, except it was serving in a high school capacity.

The Key Club was organized 30 years ago as an organization designed primarily to combat juvenile delinquency, he said. The club strives to do this by taking the leaders, or "key", boys and placing them in the club, to set a good example for followers.

There are about 30,000 boys in the U.S. and Canada who currently belong to the club, Rhodes said. He said the club did not strive for large membership but rather a small membership of good leaders. The reason for this, he explained, was that smaller groups work together more easily than does a large body.

He cited his own club as an example. The Baytown school has an enrollment of about 2,000 but only 37 select boys belong to the Key Club, he said.

Three other members of the club also gave short talks, including examples of the club's projects and services. Besides doing work in the school, they often work as co-sponsors on projects with the Baytown Kiwanis Club, and help promote safety drives, Scott Mann, a club member, told the local Kiwanians.

Don Hicks and Tommy Rhodes were the other two Key Clubbers here from Baytown.

Also guests of the Kiwanis Club were members of the national champion poultry judges from A&M. They are Kendrick A. Holleman, David Behlen, Clint Herring, Carl Armstrong and E. D. Parnell (team coach).

Another highlight of the program was the presentation of a charter for Explorer Scout Squadron 12 to Kiwanis President John Longly by J. G. Potter.

Aggies Are Known To Help Their Own

Any Aggie can make an emergency loan from Lou without any security or interest. At the present Lou has over $2,000.00 out in loans, many of which were made early in the semester and are now past due. If you have borrowed from Lou and can't repay him now, just keep on trading with Lou but drop by and tell him when you can repay him.

Since Lou can't make any more loans until some loans are repaid, try to help your buddies by repaying Lou now if you can.

Lou appreciates the opportunity to help your buddies?

The Marlboro Man

A lot of man... a lot of cigarette

"He gets a lot to like—filter, flavor, flip-top box." The works.

A filter that means business. An easy draw that's all flavor. And the flip-top box that ends crushed cigarettes.
