

Readings Highlight Meeting Of Poets

Poetry readings by Frank J. Peirce of the A&M English Department highlighted the Monday night meeting of the Poetry Society of Bryan-College Station, held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Thomas.

Peirce, guest critic for the evening, included among his readings "The Congo" by Vadel Lindsay, "Renescence" by Edna Vincent Millay, and some of Robert Frost's poems.

Poems submitted by members were read by Mrs. Milton Huggett, after which Peirce analyzed them. Only the popular vote was taken in the judging of members' poems.

Student Groups Making Plans For Conference

Arrangements are now being completed for the sixth annual Ecumenical Student Christian Conference to be held here March 7-9.

Seven of the student Christian movements serving at A&M will be hosts to interested students and faculty from the Southwest for the program of study, worship and fellowship.

Dr. John Deschner of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, will speak on the theme, "Why Ecumenicity?" Dr. Lee C. Phillip, dean of the chapel, Prairie View A&M College, will lecture on the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to John. Some 20 Bible scholars will assist student group leaders in further study of this Scripture.

The seven participating student groups are Presbyterian, Methodist, Faith United Church of Christ, Episcopal, Disciples of Christ, Lutheran, and YMCA.

Social Whirl

Aggie Wives Bridge Club will hold a bridge-o party at 7:30 tonight in the Memorial Student Center.

Last week prizes went to Roberta Ash and Mary Young in the regular group and to Eudine Lott and Darla Dittman in the intermediate group.

Hostesses tonight will be Angela Rambo, Janice King, Betty Morris, Barbara Keller, Ina Harrison and Ruby Schaper.

Agricultural Education Wives Club will meet at 8 p.m. today in the basement of the Agricultural Engineering Building. Ph.T. degrees will be awarded.

Rug Group of the A&M Women's Social Club will meet at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday in the home of the hostess, Mrs. John Allphin, 411 Walton Dr.

ESCAPERS
 FORT THOMAS, Ky. (AP)—Dog Warden Robert Mills rounded up several strays and placed them in a cage on his truck. Then spotted a Great Dane.

Trying to get the dog into the truck, Mills found there was too much Dane and not enough cage.

As he pushed and pushed, the other dogs squeezed out of the cage and took off. With them went the Great Dane.

In the serious category, first place was given to "The Texas West" by Charles Drumwright, second to "Ah, Words!" by Jerry Drumwright, and third to "Meditation in a Spring Wood" by Jessie Merle Franklin.

In the light category first went to "Quick Change" by Jessie Merle Franklin, second to "Bird Brain" by Elizabeth Wood, and third to "Grandmother's Attic" by Eleanor Nance.

During the business meeting it was announced that a new book by Dr. John Q. Anderson, "Texas Surgeon in the C.S.A.," has just been published.

Two poems by Mabel Clare Thomas have been accepted for sive Farmer and one by Highlights. Members decided to present a copy of Mrs. Dan Hudson's book, "Raphael, the Herald Angel" to the Carnegie Children Library.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess. Next meeting, Feb. 10, will be in the Bryan home of Miss Elizabeth Wood.

Presbyterians Plans Program For Next 2 Years

Presbyterian Joint Board for Campus Christian Life at A&M met this week to plan work for the next two years.

New officers elected are Dr. J. C. Miller, chairman; V. E. Schember, vice chairman; Will Worley, secretary; W. L. Penberthy, treasurer.

J. R. Jackson and M. L. Cashion Jr., former chairman and treasurer, respectively, will continue on the board, completing the representation of the Synod of Texas of the Presbyterian Church.

The U.S.A. Synod is represented by Hugh McAfee, C. J. Stromberger, and W. Squires of San Antonio; Jim Boswell and Rev. Charles L. Dickey of Austin, and W. G. Smith, Houston.

Volunteers Slate Mardi Gras Visit

The Ross Volunteers will journey to New Orleans for the annual Mardi Gras in mid-February and will march in the Mardi Gras parade as the honor guard of King Rex on February 18.

Charles R. Smith, mechanical engineering major from Dallas, is the commanding officer of the group. Other cadet officers who will make the trip include: J. Paul Costa of Fort Worth, executive officer; Donald Dunlap of New Orleans, administrative officer; Ray M. Bowen of Dallas, First Platoon leader; James R. Groves of Dallas, second platoon leader; Ray Camper of Bellaire, third platoon leader, and John Foster, first sergeant.
