Myers Hires 'Bill' Jones

By The Associated Press

Appointment of William "Bill" Jones of Middle Tennessee State College to the coaching staff of Texas A&M was announced yesterday by Jim Myers, new athletic director and head football coach.

Jones, 32, played offensive and defensive end at Vanderbilt in 1948 and 1949. Middle Tennessee was undefeated in 10 games in 1957.

Jones is the fifth member of Myers' staff. Others are Bud Sherrod, formerly of Texas Tech; Russ Faulkinberry and Doug Bradley, formerly of Iowa State; and Willie Zapalac, a Texas A&M graduate retained from the Paul Bryant coaching staff.

Sauer Sours On Baylor, Tries Iowa

WACO, (AP)—George Sauer, athletic director at Baylor University said yesterday he will fly to Ames, Iowa, Friday to be interviewed for the Iowa State football coaching job.

Sauer said yesterday "I'm interested."

Asked if he missed active coaching, he said, "I sure do."

Iowa State lost its football coach a week ago when Jim Myers shifted to Texas A&M.

Sauer became football coach and athletic director at Baylor in 1950, but relinquished the coaching job at the end of the 1955 season.

Porkers Blast Cadets In Court Play, 67-51

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas' Razorbacks blasted the Aggies at Fayetteville Tuesday night and walked off with a 67-51 victory for their fifth straight Conference win.

The win put the University of Arkansas team in a threat position for the Southwest Conference basketball title which, if they make it, will be their first basketball title since 1941.

A&M got the first basket, a jump shot by Neal Swisher, but Arkansas quickly gained a 14-4 lead, and the Aggies never saw daylight again.

With 6-5 Wayne Dunn and 6-0 Fred Grim doing most of the damage, the Porkers kept widening the gap until the spread was 21 points midway in the second half.

Then Coach Glenn Rose sent in the second team. The regulars returned as soon as A&M cut the margin to 14.

Grim continued his role as Arkansas' leading scorer with 18 points. Larry Grisham, a 6-3 jump shot artist, contributed 12 and Dunn 10.

Archie Carroll was A&M's top pointmaker with 15. Swisher, who had 10, was the only other Aggie to break into the double figures.

The victory was Arkansas' seventh in a row and gave the Porkers, ranked 17th in the Associated Press National Poll, a 12-3 slate for the season.

A torrid 52 per cent shooting average was the major factor in Arkansas' 42-25 halftime lead. The Porkers cooled off in the second half and wound up with a .410 percentage for the night.

The Porkers also had the upper hand on the backboards with 49 rebounds to 37 for the taller Aggies.
