FRUIT COMPOTE

- 1 bag assorted dried fruits
- 1 big jar (the size of a tall mayonnaise jar) with tight-fitting lid
- boiling water
- 2 ounces sweet wine, optional

Put dried fruit in jar, pour enough boiling water to just cover the fruit, place lid loosely on jar, and set aside to cool. When cool, close jar tightly and allow to stand in refrigerator overnight. Then add the wine and allow to stand another day. Serve well chilled over vanilla pudding or with whipped cream topping. Yield: 6 servings.

MUSTARD SAUCE

- 1 can pineapple chunks, including liquid
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- several halved cherries, optional

Empty pineapple chunks and liquid into a small saucepan; set over moderate heat. Stir in the cornstarch. Keep stirring while mixture thickens slightly, then add the mustard. Stir to mix, cover, lower the heat, and cook for 5 minutes. Uncover, add the cherries and serve hot over pan-fried slices of picnic ham or Spam. Yield: 4 to 5 servings.

MEAT BALLS BARBECUE

- 1 pound ground meat
- 1 teaspoon parsley
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 cup cracker crumbs
- 1 egg
- 3 tablespoons evaporated milk
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1 small onion, chopped fine
- 1 can baked beans
- 2 tablespoons catsup
- 1 tablespoon molasses (waffle, cane or Karo syrup may be substituted)
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard

Mix parsley, salt, pepper and crumbs with meat, making sure that the dry ingredients are well distributed throughout. Make a well in the meat and add the egg and milk, mixing again. Shape mixture into meat balls.

For the barbecue, brown the chopped onion in hot fat in a deep pan. When golden, add meat balls and brown quickly. Lower the heat, cover and continue cooking for 15 minutes. Uncover, add beans and remaining ingredients, stir to mix, then cover and cook for 5 more minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

Rev. Eugene Daniel

A&M Students Will Observe Day Of Prayer

Universal Day of Prayer for students will be observed Sunday with a special service in the A&M Chapel.

The sermon will be given by the Rev. Eugene Daniel, candidate secretary of the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The service will be led by students from varying backgrounds: Holim Kim, Presbyterian from Korea; Arlis Adicke, Lutheran from Texas, and Zilmar Marcos, Methodist from Brazil.

The Rev. Daniel, a graduate of Georgia Institute of Technology and Columbia Theological Seminary, has served in Africa, Germany and Korea as a chaplain, minister to war prisoners and as missionary.

In his present position he is responsible for recruiting, selecting and training new missionaries. The offering taken at the service Sunday will go to further the work of the World Student Christian Federation in all areas of student life around the globe.

Poetry Group Has Program On E. A. Poe

Edgar Allen Poe's personality and writings were the subject of the program given by Dr. Carroll Laverty Monday night at the regular meeting of the Poetry Society.

The meeting was held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wood, with Mrs. L. V. Hanna as co-hostess.

Laverty, who also served as critic for the evening, was introduced by Vic Lindley. He told the group that a poem is a living thing which changes and grows even after it is finished. He illustrated his idea by quoting verses from Dante's "Inferno" and Shakespeare's "Othello" which, he said, gave new meaning for him to some of Poe's works.

Laverty, who is a graduate of the University of Colorado, wrote his doctoral thesis on Poe.

The poems presented by society members were judged by Laverty as follows: first, "The Night Winds' Lullaby" by Mabel Clare Thomas; second, "I Remember a Day" by Eleanor Nance, and third, "Year So Young" by Jerry Drumwright.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses from a table centered with an arrangement of landina and laurel leaves.

The next meeting will be on March 10 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Q. Anderson.
