

Residents, A&M Students Join In Observing Day Of Prayer

A community-wide observance of the World Day of Prayer was held in College Station Friday, with A&M students and Consolidated School pupils pausing during classes for silent prayer. Climaxing the observance was a prayer service at the Interfaith Chapel on the A&M campus sponsored by the College Station Council of Church Women.

Church bells and the college whistle signaled the moment of silent prayer at 10 a.m. Vice President Earl Rudder of A&M and Mayor Ernest Langford had endorsed the observance and requested faculty, students, and townspeople to pause for prayer at that time Friday.

Mrs. W. D. Hardesty, chairman of Christian World Missions, was in charge of the chapel program, whose theme was "The Bread of Life." Participating in the service were the Mesdames Jack Keesee, Wendell Nedderman, Bob Monk, Charles Haas, Charles Workman, Melvin Rotsch, Joe L. Pointevent, Bob Cooper, and William O. Parker.

Ushers for the service were Mrs. Bob Andrews and Mrs. W. W. Mills. Mrs. Stewart Brown and Mrs. Ran Boswell were in charge of the guest book.

Special music was provided by the Ladies Harmony Singers, an interest group of the A&M College Social Club, under the direction of Mrs. James Stewart. Mrs. C. W. Simmons accompanied the group who sang the anthem, "Let All the World in Every Corner Sing"; "O Lord Most Holy"; Mrs. Marvin Butler, soloist; and the "Seven-Fold Amen".

World Day of Prayer offerings go to help women and children all over the world. Church women have made possible vacation Bible schools for children in low-income farm communities, day care centers for children of migrant workers, and "make-up schools" for migrant children who have no chance to attend regular classes.

Overseas, 10 Union Christian Colleges and Universities in Asia and Africa are of interest to churchwomen, whose gifts contribute to their support. Cameroon College in French Equatorial Africa is the only Christian college for African women, while Kinnaird College is the only Christian college for women in Pakistan.

Wives Club Entertains

Chemical Engineering Wives were hostesses last night at a tea in the South solarium of the YMCA. Faculty wives honored at the affair were (left to right) Mrs. J. D. Lindsey, Mrs. W. D. Harris, Mrs. W. B. Hayes, and Mrs. Gladys Bishop. A Valentine's theme was carried out in decorations and refreshments for the occasion.

Quick topper for chicken pie: slice corn muffins into thirds or cut slices of bread with 2-inch round cutter; brush with butter and bake in hot oven until golden.

Kamm to Take Part In Chicago Meeting

Robert B. Kamm, dean of the Basic Division and Student Personnel Services, will be one of the leading participants in the 13th annual Conference on Higher Education in Chicago March 2-5.

Kamm will serve as recorder for the Monday session, entitled "By What Means Can the Quality and Quantity of Guidance Services, Particularly in the High Schools, Be Increased?"

Some 1000 college and university leaders are expected to attend the conference designed to discuss the problem of strengthening the quality of higher education in this age of satellites.

These leaders will consider increased opportunities for students, innovations in administration and improvement of teaching and new developments in the curriculum.

Lions' Fund Drive 'Highly Successful'

In a general business meeting held at yesterday's College Station Lions Club luncheon meeting, a secretary's report showed the Lions' fund raising drives "highly successful".

Funds from the drives go to worthwhile community projects such as supplying glasses to underprivileged children with poor vision, sending local handicapped youngsters to the Lion-sponsored Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville and supporting other community projects.

Social Whirl

Agronomy Wives Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Brooks room of the YMCA. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Trudy McFarland who will speak on child development.

Social Club Luncheon Set For Friday

The Briarcrest Country Club will be the scene Friday of a 12:30 luncheon for members of the A&M Women's Social Club.

Newcomers Club, with Mrs. Edward L. Scott, president, will be hostesses.

Following the luncheon, a style show will be presented by Lester's Smart Shop, with club members as models.

Mrs. R. E. Branson has charge of arrangements for the luncheon. Mrs. W. H. Clayton is chairman of the committee for table decorations, featuring "Buttons and Bows," and carrying out the musical theme for the year.

When planning poultry stuffing you may wish to put aside a loaf of bread two or three days ahead so that the bread will be stale but not hard.

Little Time Left For Car Inspections

Less than two months are left to have motor vehicles inspected, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Texas Department of Public Safety Director, warned yesterday.

Only 36 per cent of registered vehicles in Texas have been inspected thus far.
