

Former Judge Speaks to AAUP

James P. Hart, Austin attorney, (center) talks with President M. T. Harrington (left) and R. H. Fletcher, president of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors, following his speech last night.

Hart Urges AAUP To Boost Education

manifold problems of our modern educational system, Hart said. last night.

keep our minds free and open to technical advancement. try anything which will further our Hart said that since Sputnik has Hall stand. goals of world peace and justice, changed the educational climate for all."

He told some 200 professors and system: guests at the AAUP's annual banquet that the needs of higher education today are threefold.

"We must (1) improve our scien- be granted. tific and technical training in orintelligent people need some knowl- be created. edge of science in our modern society and (3) remember that while military strength is important, it should be used as a means to an

STE

sic reasons for living.

"We must discourage feelings of cynicism and lack of public spirited -the people of Texas aren't getservice still prevalent in America ting their educational money's have citizens interested in public mission to the college, said last or the other. service."

Full use of the educated minds of pathy toward regulation of thought Force, the result is humor. free men is the best answer to the and expression has hampered our society, James P. Hart, former He cited McCarthyism, legisla- catastrophe, the result is a frustra-Texas Supreme Court justice, said tive acts restricting academic free- ted sergeant-and more humor. dom and the Atomic Energy Com- And rib-tickling humor in this area of an atomic bomb test after neering, delivered the Welcome ad-Hart told the A&M chapter of mission censure of Dr. Robert Op- form is destined to hit Guion Hall they get lost on a training flight. dress to the group. State Highway the American Association of Uni- penheimer, a brilliant scientist, as stage Monday night at 8 when versity Professors that "we must major setbacks for educational and Maurice Evans' "No Time for Ser- with stunning lighting effects to the general session.

freedom and reasonable prosperity these are some of the things that after a two-year stay on Broad- a real bomber. are required for our educational way, where it delighted audiences But aside from the outstanding sponsibility of the Texas Highway for 800 performances.

1. More financial aid and more teachers are needed.

3. Higher qualifications for stu- with an entire Air Force command der to survive, (2) stress that all dents and more desire to learn must post. His buddy-in-humor, Ben ed for the performance.

Number 93: Volume 57

When their antics get out of play. hand, even to the point of near geants" makes its one-night Town add every touch of reality to the Principal address of the meet Georgia plowboy who wreaks havoc erts" did for the Navy.

Whitledge, is played by Tucker

By JOE BUSER

"This seems to be the overall A&M isn't meeting its obligation motive of the Board of Directors," cently appointed chief scien-tit of the Columna Manine he said. The 1935 graduate of A&M said Laboratory, a branch of the today," Hart emphasized. "If we worth, John M. Barron, attorney his case on co-education would not Oceanography and Meteorolo-• are to achieve our goals we must for two Bryan women seeking ad- affect integration at A&M one way gy Dept., according to K. M. Rae, rvice." Financial restriction and sym-inight. inight. inight.

Ashworth. The sergeant who bea version of life in today's Air cast is a cigarette girl, who adds

> The production is built around Tuesday and yesterday in the Mescenes such as the one which finds morial Student Center. the two inductees in the target Fred J. Benson, dean of engi-Vivid scene designs will combine Engineer D. C. Greer presided at Iall stand. The play is on a nationwide tour in a scene is a cutaway section of trict engineer for the highway de-mechanics, humor is still destined Department for handling of traffic Heading the cast will be Charles to take the spotlight. "No Time on construction jobs. Hohman who enacts the role of for Sergeants" is supposed to do 2. Greater teacher prestige must Will Stockdale, a disillusioned for the Air Force what "Mr. Rob- of the meeting was the presenta-

642 Attend

THE BATTALION

Published Daily on the Texas A&M College Campus

President, Nixon Plan For

Leadership in Emergency

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1958

Short Course totaled 642, Fred

Several persons in highway conan appeal other than humor to the struction and maintenance led ference: panels on phases of highway work partment, who spoke on the re-

Highlight of the general session tion of certificates to the State Joe E. Davis, commandant, said Town Hall tickets will be honor- Highway Department from the American Institute of Steel construction in recognition of bridge engineering and building achievenent.

> The two-day course included panels dealing with geometric design and traffic control, management, pavements and construction operations, structures and bydraulics, right-of-way and maintenance operation programs.

The Civil Engineering Dept. and Albert W. Collier Jr. was rethe Texas Transportation Institute tist of the Galveston Marine cooperation with the Texas Highway Department.

Ike Also Deems

Price Five Cents

vesterday he and Vice President Nixon have a definite understanding of what Nixon will do in an emergency if the chief annual Highway Engineering executive becomes unable to carry on his duties.

Eisenhower kept terms of the agreement a secret, but When an airman fresh from a comes entangled in the pair's an- W. Hensel, associate director obviously it would embrace some arrangement for the vice Georgia farm mixes antics with his bespectacled and crew-cut buddy in hart. Included in the 21-player vesterday.

On other major points, Eisenhower told a news con-

1. A tax cut is "a possibility if there is any deepening of the depression that requires it."

But more jobs may open up is necessary to bring about the up-press secretary James C. Hagerty in March and "mark the be-Water Fighters ginning of the end of this recession." And with the government asking record sums Get Saturday for such things as public works, agriculture and peacetime defense, "you have got to try to get some money in your purse to pay for the bills. So, certainly you don't want to go into a tax cut until that All military units involved in the water fight Tuesday turn." night in the new Corps area It was the first time Eisenhower will have a standby inspection had referred to the economic set-Saturday at 1:30 p. m., Col. back as a depression. White House last night. said afterward that "I think he The inspection will be a federal ment 'recession.' " type, according to the Articles (of 2. Secretary of Agriculture Benthe Cadet Corps, and will be conson, target of resignation demands ducted by staff members from the from some Republican House mem-School of Military Sciences, he bers from the farm belt, is a man said

Only units excluded from the inspection will be those housed in who are advising he be fired, dorm 8, squadron 3 and squadron Eisenhower said, "are badly mis-1, Jon Hagler, Corps commander, taken." said last night.

Col. Davis said as yet no individ-jor illnesses in a little more than ual disciplinary action had been two years. Right now he still is taken, but in the past, commanders of units involved had received demerits. director of the college Marine Lab- Experiment Station anyone to be reduced.

trying to shake off vestiges of a cold. Congress hasn't gotten very far on either legislation or a con-"I can't think of any reason for stitutional amendment for handlanyone to be reduced in rank howing a disability crisis.

Some top Democrats prefer leg-He said he had no reports of Eisenhower said he per-

Jr. Ball Ticket Sales Underway

which will be held in Sbisa Mess said.

said yesterday. day with several college and state

The tickets, which must be pur- officials for the forthcoming hear-• chased by March 17, cost $1.50 per ing March 17. He did not release person, and are available from the the names of any of the men sub- out hindrance if girls were ad- cerning radio chemistry and car- heat source and sink for home con- Center. following people: Rod Stepp, dorm poenaed.

Office.

Mrs. Lena Bristol as students is the school." "denial of their rights as citizens." "Considering the monies that the Sweetheart Photo college receives from state and federal sources, the people of Tex-Requirements Set as are entitled to more results than Pictures of candidates for the A&M is presently giving," he said. Class of '59 Sweetheart must be Barron said in rebuttal to the turned in to the Student Activi- argument that co-eds at A&M ties Office by March 8, Rod would raise the cost to attend, that Stepp, class vice president, said "increased expenditure is a full grown contention."

"In 10 years," he said, "the A 5 x 7 picture of the candidate is preferred, Stepp said. number of students seeking college Also included should be the girl's educations in Texas will double, measurements and a picture of naturally increasing the cost."

"The only way for A&M to keep the candidate in a bathing suit, the cost down is to shirk its duty by restricting the enrollment and keeping it on an all male, military yesterday.

CE Prof Attending academy basis," Barron said. Chicago Convention

if possible.

Truman R. Jones Jr., associate research engineer of the Texas Transportation Institute and associate professor of civil engineer- a French nightclub, Rue Pinalle, ing, is attending a called meeting will open its doors to all classes of the American Concrete Institute | tomorrow night at 8:30.

week.

. crete.

For All Classes The frollicking Aggie version of

Rue Pinalle Friday

Committee 213 at the national con- The dance will continue until vention of the ACI in Chicago, this midnight in the ping pong area of the Memorial Student Center. Mu-

Committee 213 is devoted to the sic will be furnished by a jukebox. study of lightweight aggregates Admission for the dance and and lightweight aggregate con- floor show will be 75 cents per couple.

about ¾ as much to operate as courts allow them the right to tute, Collier has served as a supthe University of Texas, yet the attend schools indiscriminately. University educates about three "I think it's foolish to eliminate Fisheries Investigations, U. S. Electric Service Company, Fort times as many people," Barron white females from the college, Fisheries Threstigations, C. L. Worth, will speak on heat pump said. Of the 17,000 students enroll- since Negroes already have the Tickets for the Junior Banquet, ed about 27 per cent are girls, he right to enroll," he said.

Hall March 29, are now on sale, Rod Stepp, class vice president, Barron, filed subpoenaes yester-but there was no litigation preventing it.

By DAVE STOKER

Sbisa Dining Hall.

ervisory fishery research biologist veston until October, 1956.

He pointed out that he was not the department as graduate for- periment Station Thursday, at 3:50 Yoshio Sugiura, of Tojo, Japan, lecture room.

will work on the International the loveliest girls in Texas.

sea water.

research at the monthly staff meet- Heads Council Talk is a rather unque state of inducation in the state of inducation in the state of inducation in the state of inducation is a rather unque state of inducation in the state of inducation is a rather unque sta Two other men have also joined ing of the Texas Engineering Ex-mitted," Barron said, "It wouldn't bon dioxide analysis of sea water. ditioning, conducted over a period Research Foundation.

personal injury or property damage in the midnight splash.

Civilian Weekend

islatio sonally favors an amendment.

> "Now, in my own case," he added, "because I think in between Mr. Nixon and myself there is a rather unique state of mutual Plans for Civilian Student Week- respect, that there . . . is no probadvocating integration at A&M, eign students, it was announced. p.m. in the Petroleum Engineering end will head the agenda of the lem; because I think Mr. Nixon Civilian Student Council at a meet- knows exactly what he should do He was a co-ordinator of re- ing at 7:30 tonight in the Senate in the event of a presidential dis-"The Corps could progress with- Geophysical Year program con- search involving the earth as a Chamber of the Memorial Student ability of the kind that we are talking about.

The council will also discuss or-"And so, I have got my own 7, room 408; Ed Hill, 3-204; Bob The Bryan attorneys are con- make 'tea sippers' out of them-in Mu-Tsu Wu, of Taipei, Formosa, of years at the station on a project ganization for civilian student conscience clear at the moment, Lassiter, 17-231; Gary Pepper, 14- tending that the college's refusal fact, in about a year, I think they'd will work as an assistant in the sponsored by the Texas Electric leaders, Mother's Day reports and but I still think it should be han-303; and the Student Activities to admit Mrs. Barbara Tittle and recognize the girls as a part of desalination research project on Service Company through the A&M dorm council - Civilian Student dled as something for all future Council relations. cases."

Fish' Sweetheart Finalists Selected

T. White; Linda Ann Daugherty, include academic school deans, mil- It is preferred that all Corps Girls, music and dancing are fill- Selection of the "Fish" Sweet- by Charles C. Murphy; Kathleen itary department heads, tactical of- members wear white shirts and ing the close-cropped heads of the heart will hold the spotlight at the Peabody, by Don Eastwood; and ficers and Civilian counselors. black bow ties with class "A" uni-Aggie fish as they prepare to click dance. The list of nominees has Michaele Carlisle, by James W.

Music will be furnished by the forms Aggieland Orchestra.

Officers in charge of the ball

Tilmon Reaves, social chairman.

their heels at the annual Fish Ball, been narrowed to five charming la- Willis. Friday night from 9-12 p.m. in dies. Vice President and Mrs. Earl Tickets are $2, stag or drag and are Charles C. Murphy, president; Finalists and their escorts are: Rudder head the list of prominent can be purchased from freshman Paul Martin, vice president; Rob-Especially girls, since tradition- Susie Seidel escorted by Donald H. guests attending the ball. Other officers or from the Student Ac- ert Bower, secretary-treasurer; and ally, the A&M freshmen possess Jones; Susanne Neal, by William college officials to attend the dance tivities Office,

Kathleen Peabody

Susanne Neal

Linda Ann Daugherty