Ag Nine Preps For UH Opener

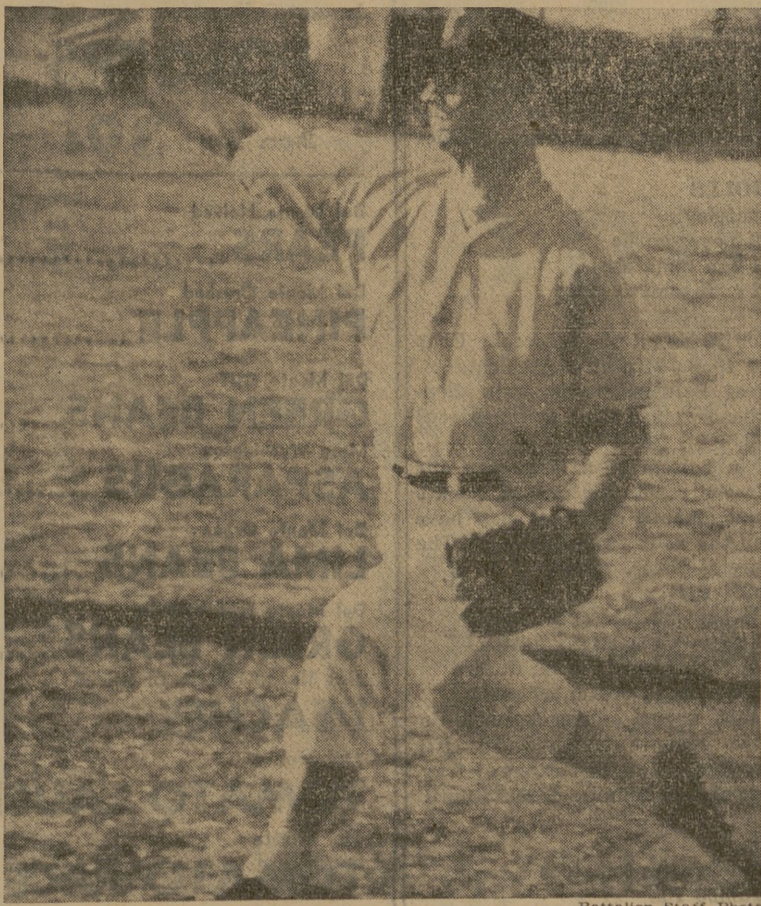

Clear skies and windy weather should greet Coach Beau Bell's baseball team when they trot out onto the diamond Saturday for their spring debut against the University of Houston Cougars in Kyle Field at 2 p. m.

The starting lineup for the Cadets has not been decided yet, but the veteran coach will probably have three of his top pitchers ready for action, each one seeing three innings of play against the tough Cougars.

The starting moundsmen will be picked from the group of Co-Captain Toby Newton, Percy Sanderson and Donnie Hullum. Newton and Hullum are lettermen from last year's team while Sanderson was the pitching ace of the freshman team.

The Farmers start the season top-seeded as the number one team in the conference to beat. Conference play will start March 21 when the Aggies face the Baylor Bears at College Station.

Expected to lead the Cadets in their fight for the crown will be All-SWC players Gary Herrington, catcher, and Wendell Reed, outfielder. Ready to assist the two star players will be Dickie Thomas in the outfield along with James Smotherman and an infield expected to be predominantly sophomores.

Tankers Prepared For Weekend Meets

Art Adamson's tankers take to the pool Friday and Saturday with the freshmen meeting Lamar High School of Houston at 4 p. m. Friday and both teams taking on the University of Texas Saturday at 2 p. m.

Adamson said that both the varsity and fish teams are rounding out into good shape.
