

Sanderson Muzzles Bulldog Sluggers As Farmers Post Third Victory 7-1

By GARY ROLLINS
 Two stingy Aggie pitchers combined efforts yesterday afternoon to fire a nifty two-hitter as the Texas Aggies ripped Texas Lutheran's Bulldogs, 7-1 for their third win against one defeat.
 Percy Sanderson, soph hurler from Nederland pitched one-hit ball for six full innings for the Aggies, being relieved by lanky Wayne Schaper, who went the rest of the route, also yielding but one hit.
 The Bulldogs drew first blood in the second inning, as second sacker Eddie Marburger was hit by a pitched ball and Roger Wilke tripped down the right field line. Wilke slipped between third and home and was tagged out to retire the side.

The Aggies struck back sharply in their half of the frame, however and tied it up at one run apiece. After Jim Smotherman had flied to short left field, Ed Dudley advanced to first on an error. He stole second and third on a wild toss from catcher. One wild pitch later, Dudley scooted across the dish with the tying run.
 In the fifth inning, the Farmers added an insurance run as Ralph Plumlee singled to left. Sanderson sacrificed him to second. J. B. Carroll then lofted a long fly to right field, moving Plumlee to third. Houchin walked, and on the double steal the toss to second base was wide for the cutoff play allowing Plumlee to score.
 In the seventh inning, Wayne

Schaper reached first base on an error. Carroll walked, moving Schaper to second. Schaper was called out at third on an attempted steal. Houchin doubled down the right field line, advancing Carroll to third. Gary Herrington, stubby Aggie catcher, slapped a line single to right field scoring two more Aggie runs.
 Cleanup hitter Jim Smotherman followed up with another single, scoring Herrington and advancing to third on an outfielder's bobble. Dudley went down swinging for the second out. Patterson drew a walk, then leftfielder Lloyd Stone cracked an infield single with Smotherman scoring the fourth and final run.
 The Cadets will travel to Seguin this Saturday night for a return match with the Bulldogs.

Aggies Face Owls Saturday

Coach Ray Putnam's thin-clads take to the field once again Saturday as they invade Houston for a dual meet with the Rice Owls. It will be the third meet of the year for the Cadets and the second for the freshmen. Both Aggie teams finished third at Austin two weeks ago behind Texas and Houston and the Farmers took sixth at the Border Olympics in Laredo Saturday.

SPORTS SCHEDULE

Following is the Texas Aggie sports calendar for the week of March 10-15:
 Wednesday—Varsity golf with Lamar Tech at Beaumont.
 Thursday—Southwest conference swimming meet at Dallas.
 Friday—SWC swimming meet at Dallas.
 Saturday—SWC swimming meet at Dallas; varsity baseball with Texas Lutheran at Seguin, 8 p.m.; Fish baseball with Allen Academy, Kyle field, 2 p.m.; varsity and Fish track with Rice at Houston; Fish golf at Southwest recreation meet at Fort Worth.

Emmett Smallwood, the Galena Park flash, will lead the favored Ags against the Owls. The versatile senior competes in the broad jump, hurdles, javelin, sprints and anchors both relays. He is holder of the SWC broad jump record with a leap of 25-1 1/2.
 Putnam will take 27 members of the varsity and 23 members of the Fish squad to the Houston meet.
