Aggie Newman Club Hears Talk By Religious Brother

The life of a religious brother was described Sunday for the Aggie Newman Club by Brother Bartel of the Holy Cross Brothers stationed at Saint Edward's University in Austin.

Addressing the club on the subject of vocations, Bartel said that the life of a religious brother is widely misunderstood.

He also discussed the importance of picking the right vocation in life and stated that no matter what one's vocation, he must cooperate with God in order to be successful.

Bartel, whose territory covers 27 states, each year travels from coast to coast speaking at Army camps and before Newman Clubs.

Delvin Lefner, president of the club, announced that a charcoal burger fry for all members and their guests will be held tonight at Saint Mary's Student Center. Tickets are available through Wing and Regiment chaplains and dorm representatives.

Mrs. Kermit Snyder of the Real Hat Shop will show her collection of Easter hats and accessories at the meeting of Civil Engineering Wives at 7:30 tonight in the south solarium of the YMCA.
