

Ag Softball Team Prepares

Barney Welsh's Aggie softball team is busy preparing for their opening game of 1958 against the University of Texas March 28, in Austin.

The Aggies are deep in pitching with Robert Sanders, James Klampert, Cecil Labhart, and Chick Dvoracek. Dvoracek was the Teasip stopper last year giving up only two hits in winning the championship, 2-1.

Alabama Took 'The Bear' But 'Snake' Is Still Here

By GARY ROLLINS

Four years ago, when Paul Bryant came from out of the Kentucky hills to coach football at Texas A&M, the Aggies proclaimed "The Bear" was the best contribution Kentucky had ever given to Texas. As the conference golf tournament draws near, however, it is apparent that the land of fast horses and beautiful women—or vice versa—has also donated one of the nation's top collegiate golfers in Bobby Nichols, A&M's senior golfer.

He came to Aggieland the same year as did Bryant, but even though the Bear of the Brazos has gone into exile in Alabama and no longer terrorizes Aggie gridiron opponents, Bobby remains to take his share of the Southwest Conference honors and deal misery on the greens and fairways.

At the ripe old age of ten years, Nichols started his golfing career near his home in Louisville, Ky. After a few years of caddying and watching, he decided it was time to launch his own golf career—and he's burned up the links ever since.

His greatest achievement—to date—at A&M was winning the 1956 Southwestern Inter-Collegiate Golf Championship.

However, this is but one of his many kudos. In 1953 and 1954, he reaped a grand harvest of honors. As a high school student, he coped both the Kentucky State High School and State Juniors Championships.

In 1956, Bobby won the Kentucky Public Links Championship, and to prove it wasn't luck, he captured the crown again in 1957.

After winning the Public Links trophy, Bobby continued his domination in the Bluegrass State by winning the Kentucky State Amateur Championship.

So, this week, Lamar Tech, North Texas and Mississippi Southern will have to contend with the Aggies' ace golfer, and along about May 8-9, the members of the SWC will face a similar task.

From his past record, "Nick" or "Snake" as he is affectionately called, has good motives for going professional on graduation—that is after his 6-month tour in khaki—in Kentucky, at Fort Knox.

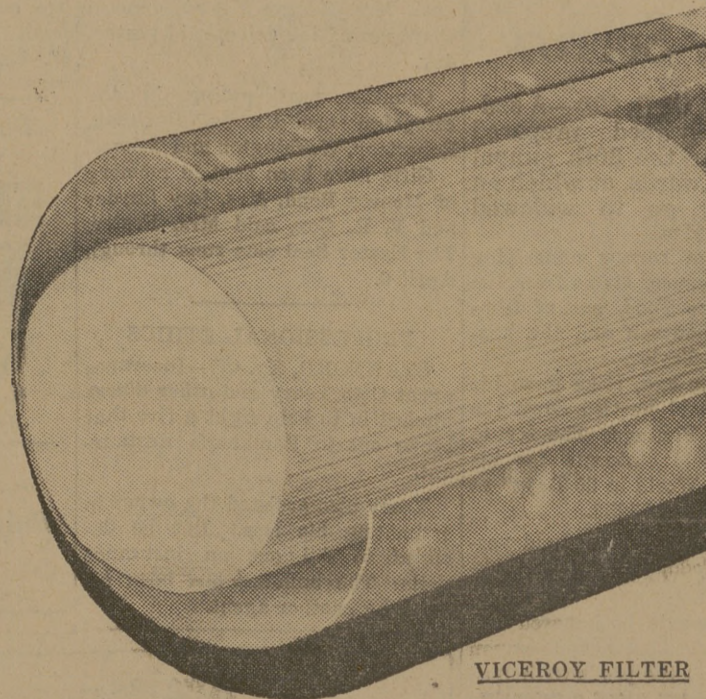

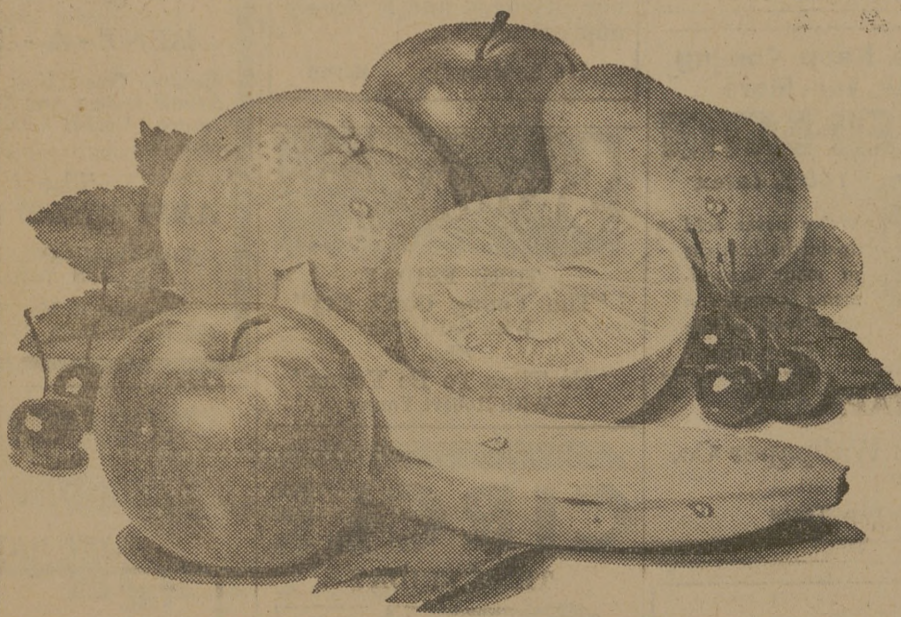

When asked why he was going pro instead of following a more rigorous occupation, Bobby said: "You can't eat silver cups."

Bluegrass Aggie

Bobby Nichols, A&M's answer to Ben Hogan and Sammy Snead, reigns as the Aggies' top linksman. He was Southwest Conference champion as a sophomore, and has consistently ranked among the top of the conference's golfers. Bobby hails from Louisville, Kentucky.
