MSC Sets Tourney For "Aggies" Only

John Geiger, manager of the Memorial Student Center Bowling Lanes, has announced that a bowling tournament for "Aggies Only" will be held April 19-20 and 26-27 with the winning team members receiving a pair of bowling shoes valued at $8.95.

According to Geiger, any regular enrolled Aggie may enter this team tournament. The teams will be composed of five members from an outfit or dormitory. Publications wishing to enter teams may also do so. In addition, outfits may enter more than one team.

The teams will bowl three games apiece in a regular scratch tournament with all A. B. C. rules applicable. The top ten Aggies of the MSC-sponsored Bowling Committee are ineligible to enter.

If a team cannot bowl on the weekend scheduled, they must arrange to bowl at another time before the 26-27 of April, provided they clear with tournament secretary Lee Wilson, employee of the Bowling & Games Department.

The entry fee will be $1.25 per member or $6.25 per team and must accompany each entry. The deadline for team entries is midnight, April 14.

Soggy Diamonds Slow Corps

By FRED MEURER

Unpredictable spring weather has turned the Corps baseball program into a maze of postponed games, hurriedly rescheduled contests and general confusion as the eager but restricted cadets have been able to get only a third of the first round of play under the wire.

Both the Air Force and Army leagues have played only five games in the first two weeks of the season. March, generally known as the month of wind, has literally poured havoc on the program in the form of almost constant rains and cold weather.

And April, the month of RAIN, looms just around the corner, leaving no relief in sight.

In the Air Force, two groups have dominated play. The 3rd Group currently leads the league with three wins, over the 6th, 4th and 1st groups in that order. Close on their heels is the 5th Group, with victories over the 2nd and 6th groups. No other team has entered the won column in that circuit.

Over in the Army league, both the 2nd Battalion, 1st Regiment and the 1st Battalion, 2nd Regiment have chalked up two wins without a loss. Behind them is the 3rd Battalion, 1st Regiment with a mark in each column, while the 2nd Battalion, 2nd Regiment, the Band and the 3rd Battalion, 2nd Regiment have been unable to come up with a win.

The schedule calls for the first round to be completed by April 1, with about a week after that allotted for make-up games.

AIR FORCE
Team	Won	Lost
3rd Group	3	0
5th Group	2	0
1st Group	0	1
2nd Group	0	1

1st Bn/2nd Reg	2	0
3rd Bn/1st Reg	1	1
2nd Bn/2nd Reg	1	1

'Manor' Opens On July 1

The Athletic Department has set July 1 as the opening date for the new athletic dormitory now under construction behind Law and Puryear Halls.

The dorm, to be named Junction Manor, will house 100 athletes in comfortable and modern style.

Included in its facilities will be a spacious lounge area, a large apartment for the house mother, who will serve as hostess, and her husband, and large rooms for the athletes to live in.

Adjoining the dormitory will be a swimming pool, complete with a large bath house.

An added feature which will make the dorm more liveable will be the complete—once-a-day—maid service.

Two athletes will be housed in a room with twin Hollywood beds, a study desk and lavator yfacilities. The plan for allowing a man a place in Junction Manor will be one of merit. Coach Jim Myers will choose the men whom he thinks are doing the best for the team.

Lumbermen

Rightfielder Jim Smotherman and Catcher Gary Herrington get together with some high level hitting policy as they prepare for Saturday's two-game series with Southern Methodist. Herrington leads the club with his .522 batting average while Smotherman is hitting .357 through seven games.

The scores in this event included Henry Gill's 283, Charles Benson's 276, David Herring's 273 and Bollfrass' 267. The .45 cal. 1st Marksman Team included Ferrald Belote, Charles Campbell, Ray McKnight and James Roberts.
