Cadets Split Series With SMU; Face Froggies This Afternoon

By GARY ROLLINS

After being shut out 5-0 in the Southern Methodist series opener in Dallas Friday, the Texas Aggies bounced back to squeak by the Ponies in the Saturday game, 4-3.

The defeat was the second suffered by Coach Beau Bell's Aggies as compared to seven victories.

In the Friday game, a former grid star, Carl Schlemeyer, turned on the heat for the Ponies and limited A&M to four hits, while striking out nine.

The Aggie pitching looked "almost" as good, with Baytown hurler Donnie Hullum whiffing eight and yielding the same number of hits—but the tale was told on free passes to first base. Schlemeyer passed out four, while Hullum issued six. Three of Hullum's walks came in the noisy SMU third stanza which found three runs crossing the dish.

A&M's fabled hitting did not make the scheduled appearance however, as leftfielder Lloyd Stone tallied half of the base knocks for A&M with two—one of them a triple—and pinch hitter Don Chase and shortstop Ralph Plumlee added singles.

In the ninth inning, the Cadets filled the bags after two were out on an error, a single by Chase and a walk, but an infield force play ruined the rally and decided the game.

After yielding the conference lead to Texas and Southern Methodist for a brief spell Friday night, A&M came back Saturday afternoon to trip up the Ponies and drop them back into a tie for second with A&M. The Longhorns now are at the top of the heap with a 4-0 mark.

Are You A True Aggie?

People all over the country know of Texas A & M and its rich traditions. Many also know of the quality of education one receives at this great institution and the kind of men, real men, that it turns out.

Although many have heard what it means to be an Aggie, only Aggies know the real meaning of the word "Aggie" and feel the impact of Aggie's great traditions. We, the students and former students, take great pride in our school. We are proud that we have the privilege of being an Aggie.

Army, as we go home for the holidays let's take this opportunity to tell the top boys that A & M is the top school by any standard. Tell them what it means to be a Fightin' Texas Aggie and to be a part of the greatest fraternity on earth.

NCAA Rules Fencers 12th

After a brief look at the results of the NCAA fencing tourney held recently in Lubbock, the NCAA has ruled that Texas A&M finished twelfth in competition while Texas Tech was awarded thirteenth by virtue of the 'touch' system.

Fewer touches were scored against A&M than Tech, and with this taken into consideration, the Aggies, coached by Russ Wieder, were proclaimed holders of twelfth place in the nation.

This time it was the Aggies who drew first blood as they pushed across the winning margin in the initial inning. First sacker Bill Houchin walked to first base, advanced to second on an error, and then scored on Gary Herrington's double.

Toby Newton was credited with the win, although he had to ride some very rough weather in obtaining the victory. He gave up eight hits, struck out 11 and walked seven.

Fish Gain Win, Loss In Weekend Action

After posting their third straight win in a Friday game with John Tarleton Junior College, the Aggie Fish dropped their first contest of the season to Dallas University Saturday by the score of 2-1.

A&M took the lead in the first inning, racking up two runs, but Tarleton held the Fish scoreless in the second and third innings while they racked up single runs in both frames.

After a lone Aggie tally in the last of the third, neither team scored until the big sixth inning. The visitors started the inning with a run, but the Fish came back to cross four big runs over the plate, ending the scoring.

Randy Wortham, Fish catcher, led the batting with three hits in four trips, including one double. Left fielder Byron Barber hit one over the leftfield fence in accounting for two of the Aggie hits.

Larry Ayers went the distance for the Aggies, giving up five hits in the nine-inning battle, and holding Tarleton to only two earned runs. He walked four men and struck out eight.

Byron Barber started off the Farmer half of the first inning with an infield hit. He stole second and scored on a long single by Wortham, who went to second on the throw home. Wortham took third on an infield hit by Van Winkle and scored on an error by the Tarleton third baseman.

Sixth inning action started when first baseman Dick Hickerson took two bases on an error by the shortstop. Bobby Cloud lifted a long single to right to score Hickerson, and was then forced out at second by the shortstop, while Kettler gained first base. He moved to second on a passed ball and scored on a single by Early Davis. Barber then knocked his homer scoring Davis ahead of him.

On Saturday the Aggies dropped a close one to Dallas University 2-1 in a nine-inning game at Kyle Field.

The Cadets scored first in the bottom of the opening frame when Don Davis, shortstop, raced in for the only Aggie run. The Fish threatened in the second and third innings, leaving men on third in both frames.

Dallas U's first run came in the third when Pat Shine walked and reached second on a fielder's choice. He got a free ride the rest of the way as Aggie pitcher Joe Thompson walked two in succession.

The game was a long affair, lasting three hours, and Newton found himself in trouble time and time again in the final innings. Five Ponies were stranded on the base-paths as Newton clung to the one-run margin.

The Aggies travel to Fort Worth this afternoon to engage Texas Christian in a solo game series. During the Easter holidays, the Aggies meet Brook Medics twice in San Antonio and contest Rice at Houston on April 8. The next home game is against hard-hitting Texas on Saturday, April 12.
