

Meat Cookery Demonstration Scheduled For Thursday Night

A meat cookery demonstration sponsored by the Animal Husbandry Wives Club will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Animal Industries Building lecture room.

Miss Anna Bines, Fort Worth home economist, will conduct the demonstration. She will include in her program the latest methods of selecting and preparing meats easily and economically.

Miss Bines, who was a home economist with the National Livestock and Meat Board for seven years, will explain how to identify and cook all meat cuts, with emphasis on getting the most from the money spent for meat.

She will prepare various cuts of meat by broiling, roasting, braising and stewing.

Tickets will be on sale at the door at 25 cents per person. The demonstration is open to the public.

Social Whirl

Winners in Monday night's Aggie Wives Revue were the Architect Wives Club, who took the first place $25 prize; the Dames Club, winner of $15 for second place, and Wildlife Management Wives and Agronomy Wives, who tied for the $15 third prize.

Architecture Wives presented a skit, "Sorority Life Comes to A&M," while the Dames Club staged a dance entitled "The Mid-gets." A skit, "Mock Herping Trip," was the Wildlife Wives' offering, while Agronomy Wives presented a "Futuramic Cotton Pageant of 2058."

Civil Engineering Wives Club will hold a regular meeting at 8 tonight in the south solarium of the YMCA. The program will be a talk on "How to Be a Businessman's Wife" by R. L. Elkins.

A business meeting to discuss plans for a Ph.T. party will follow. Members wishing to receive Ph.T. degrees must pay their dues by this meeting. Hostesses will be Janie Hart and Daphne Nevill.

"The trip was fine, but I miss you already, dear"

Every wife likes to be remembered . . . especially by long distance telephone. Your call means so much. It brings immediate piece of mind. There's no need to fret, no worry about your safe arrival. Long distance telephone service is economical, too. And if you call after 6 p.m. or on Sunday you will find that the low rates are even lower.
