Perfect Records Mark Leaders As Corps Baseball Progresses

The 5th Group and the 2nd Battalion, 1st Regiment, continued their dominance in the Air Force and Army baseball leagues during the week as the "flyboys" picked up their fourth win without a loss and the "Jocks" took their fifth straight.

Tuesday night the 5th Group rocked the 4th Group, 11-5, behind the pitching of Tommy Kolterman and the hitting of battery mate Haddon Winckler. Kolterman hurled three innings of hitless, scoreless ball before faltering in the final frame, when he gave up all five opponent runs on four hits. Winckler collected three of the four hits for the winners, including a double.

Don Royall, bothered by wildness all night, was touched for two hits and three runs in the first inning and the basepaths turned into a race track after that.

In last night's action, Gary Rollins hurled the "Jocks" to a 14-0 one-hit, shutout win over the 1st Battalion, 2nd Regiment. The righthander walked none but hit two batters with pitched balls.

Trent Cox mustered a double and a triple for the winners, coupled with Rollins' double and single and Donny Farek's pair of singles. Jake Lyons added a double to the victor's 10-hit attack.

Other action last night saw the 3rd Battalion, 1st Regiment take a 5-4 victory over the 2nd Battalion, 2nd Regiment. Ray Dungen, working in relief of Kenneth Marquardt, was credited with the win.

Standings now show the "Jocks" riding the top of the Army league with their 5-0 record. Behind them is the 3rd Battalion, 1st Regiment with a 3-1 mark.

Over in the Air Force, the 4-0 record belonging to the 5th Group is tops and their nearest opponent is the 3rd Group with a 3-2 mark.

Though slowed by bad weather, holidays and high school baseball conflicts for Travis Park facilities this month, Corps baseball is moving right along now as the weather takes a turn for the better. Only a few games remain to be made up in the first round of play and the second round is almost ready to begin.

As long as the weather cooperates—at least better than it did during the first round of play—the cadets should get two full rounds under the wire. Original plans call for a play-off between winners of the two leagues at the end of regular play to determine a Corps champion.

Newton Sparks Farmers In SWC Pennant Race

Co-captain Toby Newton, a slender six-footer from Galveston, is nearing the halfway point in his final season of baseball at Texas A&M.

The lefthanded mound ace has made 31 appearances on the diamond for the Cadets, posting an 11-11 won-lost record during his years on the Aggie baseball team.

In spring, 1955, Newton was the outstanding Fish hurler with a 2-2 record. That year he struck out 60 men, walked 21 and gave up only 28 hits in 41 2/3 innings pitched.

He returned to Aggieland his sophomore year to become the outstanding pitcher on the staff, and was given a berth on the SWC all-conference team. That year Newton won 3, lost 4 and pitched in 11 games. The sophomore star struck out 76 men and allowed only 22 earned runs.

His performance that spring brought him a job during the summer with the Alpine Cowboys, a semi-pro team that makes a habit of winning national semi-pro crowns.

With the Cowboys Newton hurled a no-hit, no-run game against the Brooke Army Medics. He led the Alpine team to a third place finish in the National Baseball Congress Semi-Pro Tourney, winning two games there.

His season record with Alpine and his performance in the tourney, coupled with his performance on and off the mound, won him a position on the 1956 Semi-Pro All-American team.

Other honors garnered that season was outstanding amateur baseball player in the country and the title of '56 Sandlotter of the Year.

Back at A&M Newton was the team's seasoned veteran, and like a veteran he had his slump year. In '57 Newton made eight appearances on the mound, posting a lackluster 1-3 record. He managed to strike out 36 opponents in the same number of innings and gave up 33 hits.

Newton returned to the Farmer line-up this spring with the speed and control that made him so effective in '56. Up to now the 21-year-old senior has made nine appearances on the mound, recording a 5-2 record. A total of 47 men have gone down swinging while only 39 have received bases on balls.

Newton has given up 30 hits and allowed only 19 earned runs to cross the plate against him this season. With tight games remaining on the Aggie schedule he should continue his domination over the opposing batters.
