Local Women Get Nursing Diplomas

Mrs. Gladys Dvoracek, 505 Dugwood, and Mrs. Bert Marie Glazner, 403 Jersey, were graduated recently from the School of Nursing, Scott and White Memorial Hospital in Temple.

As members of the 55th class graduated from the school, the College Station women were among the first 1,000 nurses to receive their diplomas from Scott and White.

1/4 cup finely chopped dill

- Extra salt
 - Salad greens
 - Paprika
- Bring water and 3 teaspoons of the salt to a boil in a large kettle. Add macaroni gradually so water continues to boil. Cook, uncovered—stirring occasionally—until tender or according to package directions.

Drain in colander; rinse with cold water; drain again and chill in a covered container. Stir together thoroughly the flour, sugar and remaining 1 teaspoon salt in top of a small double boiler.

Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add water; beat enough to blend. Add to flour mixture; stir until smooth. Cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly until thickened.

Stir in butter until melted; slowly stir in the vinegar. Stir in horseradish and dill. Toss with macaroni; add extra salt if desired; chill until serving time. At serving, garnish with salad greens and sprinkle with paprika.

Faraway Places...

I've never seen the Taj Mahal. Nor have I looked up at the Leaning Tower of Pisa, or out across the broad Sahara to the Pyramids and the Sphinx.

Most of my life, as a matter of fact, has been spent right here in my own town. Not because I don't want to travel. To visit these faraway places is one of my big desires—and, one day, I hope to do it.

But I know, deep in my heart, that if I never leave my home town I'll have more to do than I can hope to accomplish. Because God is just as much here as he is anywhere. Our minister used that thought in his sermon last Sunday, and he told us how much there is for all of us to do in our own particular place—and how much remains undone!

If we'd bring just one other person to church with us on Sunday, we'd really be doing something, he told us. And, as I thought it over, I knew how true that was.

That's why I'm asking you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plans to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
