

Inexperienced Aggies Open Fall Workouts Monday at 9

A&M opens fall training Monday just three weeks before Coach Jim Myers launches his single wing against Texas Tech in the start of a new era at Aggieland.

Myers anticipates approximately 70 men for varsity workouts which are tentatively slated for 9 a.m. Monday. The Aggies will hold two-a-day drills for two weeks until the beginning of classes on Monday, Sept. 15. Workout times are scheduled for 9 a.m. and 3 or 3:30 p.m.

Because of the rugged spring training last April Myers doesn't plan on any heavy work this fall.

"We won't have as much contact as we had this spring," the new Aggie coach revealed, "but we expect to have our players in top physical condition."

The Aggies of 1958 will be short on experience although 16 returning lettermen will be on hand. Only three full-time starters of 1957 return. They are end John Tracey, tackle Ken Beck and back Richard Gay. All are senior two-year lettermen.

Gone are 14 lettermen including eight starters, among them All-Americans John Crow and Charles Krueger.

Key to Aggie success this fall will be sophomores and castoffs. Ed Dudley and Luther Hall, both of whom played in 1955 and 1956, return after missing the 1957 campaign and Myers is counting heavily on their backfield help. Dudley, senior from Pampa, is battling Charley Milstead at tailback while Hall is running at fullback behind Gordon LeBoeuf, junior letterman from Port Neches. Milstead is a Tyler junior, who was the No. 2 T quarterback last fall.

At the close of spring training sophomores were all by themselves at left or weakside end and wing-back.

Ralph Smith of Phillips, Jack Estes of Olton and Travis Nevill of Bryan all are left end candidates while Jon Few of Midlothian and Randy Sims of Houston, T halfbacks for the fresh last fall, are fighting for the starting wing-back job.

Other sophomores figuring high in Myers' plans are George Gray of Amarillo at tackle and Guards Carter Franklin of Kerens and Wayne Labar of Harlingen.

Gay, Shreveport senior and Bill

Cauthorn, junior from Del Rio, are the blocking backs. At fullback behind LeBoeuf and Hall is Bob Sanders, letterman from Seadrift.

Tracey of Philadelphia is the No. 1 right or strongside end followed by Don Smith, two-year letterman from Phillips and Byron Caruthers, junior squadman from Tyler. Caruthers played center in 1957.

Beck is the only experienced interior lineman of note. He's a senior from Minden, La. Behind him at strongside tackle are Bill Darwin of Houston and Bill Godwin, Orangefield, both junior lettermen.

Robert Garner of Palestine, a junior non-letterman, is the No. 1 left tackle with Gray and Carl Luna of Garland behind him.

Although there are four lettermen at guard none played much in 1957. They are Allen Goehring of San Marcos, Buddy Payne of Houston and Joe Munson of Angleton, all juniors and Tommy Howard, Galveston senior.

Gale Oliver, junior letterman from Refugio and Soph Roy Northrup of Amarillo will be the top center candidates.

The Aggies will meet the press and photographers Tuesday morning, Sept. 4. This is the annual conference press day.
