BROWNIES
2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1/4 pound (1/2 cup) butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Melt chocolate and butter together over hot (not boiling) water. Beat eggs with rotary beater (hand or electric) until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually beat in sugar, then vanilla until very thick. Stir in flour and salt until blended; fold in 1/2 cup of the walnuts. Turn into buttered baking pan; sprinkle with remaining 1/2 cup walnuts. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until top has shiny thin crust; do not overbake. Cool in pan placed on wire rack for 5 minutes. Run spatula around edges to loosen; cut into squares.

PARSLEY CREAMED CABBAGE
4 cups coarsely shredded green cabbage (firmly packed)
2 teaspoons instant dried onion
1 cup boiling water
1 cup cold water
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk powder
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/16 teaspoon white pepper
1/4 cup finely chopped parsley (loosely packed)

Turn cabbage, onion and boiling water into a skillet; cover and boil gently until cabbage is partly tender—about 5 minutes. Drain cabbage; save liquid.

Put cold water, nonfat dry milk powder, flour and salt in the top of a double boiler; beat gently with whisk or rotary beater just until there are no lumps. Cook and stir constantly over simmering water until thickened; stir in 1/4 cup of the cabbage liquid and the parsley. Cook and stir a few minutes longer. (Sauce should be on the thin side.) Add cabbage and pepper; reheat. Makes 6 servings.

FRESH PLUM KUCHEN
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup sugar
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 eggs
1/2 cup milk
1 pound fresh purple plums
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in the butter with a pastry blender until particles are fine. Beat eggs enough to mix yolks and whites; add milk and beat enough to blend; stir into flour mixture just until moistened. Turn into buttered baking dish, spreading evenly. Pit and halve plums and arrange over dough. Mix brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg; sprinkle over top. Bake in moderate oven 25 minutes. Cut in baking dish, remove with spatula and serve warm with butter.

MERINGUE RICE PUDDING
1/2 cup regular rice
3 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon butter or oleo
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/4 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 cup moist shredded coconut

Put rice, milk and butter in greased 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Bake uncovered in 325-degree oven for 1 hour; stir occasionally. Then stir in the 1/2 cup sugar and salt. Return to oven until milk is almost absorbed—about 40 minutes—stirring occasionally. The rice should be creamy and not dry. Remove pudding from oven; turn over to 425 degrees. Beat egg whites until foamy. Beat in 1/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time; beat in 1/4 teaspoon of the vanilla; fold in coconut; reserve. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored with remaining 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Stir some of hot pudding into beaten egg yolks. Stir back into pudding in baking dish and mix well. Spread coconut meringue around edges of pudding. Return to oven just until browned—8 minutes. Serve warm.

State Capital NEWS

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas' 56th Legislature, though not yet sworn in, already casts a long shadow over Statehouse activities.

Its membership was settled—or virtually settled—with the counting of the Democratic second primary votes. A few will have Republican opponents in November.

Of more interest now is how the 56th will lean on key issues. Political prophets already are taking pulse readings and pronounce it likely to be more liberal than its predecessor. But not predominately liberal. A big influx of newly-elected liberals from Houston is expected to be offset by Dallas conservatives, plus others from small towns.

On next session's crucial issue—finance—everyone's crystal ball seems a bit cloudy. Next Legislature will have to grapple with a financial deficit which the Legislative Budget Board has predicted may call for as much as $140,000,000 in additional tax revenue.

Winning candidates, in both their speeches and newspaper announcements, were understandably skittish and unspecific in making specific proposals for dealing with this gigantic problem. Many came out flatly against a general sales tax or state income tax. Numerous suggestions were made to balance the budget through "economy in government, elimination of waste, duplication," etc.

Such statements are like the breeze off an iceberg to state departments, many of whom have said they'll be asking for more, not less money, next session.

When the showdown comes, decisions will be made largely by the same group who pushed the voting buttons in '57. All told, there'll be 49 new faces among the 181 lawmakers.

this is the Quad...

The Quadrangle at the University of Pennsylvania . . . here live hundreds of freshmen from towns and cities all over America. For many it is their first great venture into the world of responsibility and temptation. It is a crucial year . . . and they live it in a community all their own, surrounded by the teeming millions of a great city!

An important part of their life is the Christian Association, supplementing the programs of the campus churches. There are wholesome social activities, challenging discussion groups, services of worship, opportunities for community service.

Here, as on almost every college campus, the Church is on the job. Its specially-trained leaders are guiding our sons and daughters in their adjustment to college life and the complicated world of opportunity and danger.

Are you helping the Church in its far-reaching ministry? Are you providing the religious home life and church-centered spiritual training that a boy and girl need BEFORE THEY GO OUT INTO THE WORLD?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
