

New Street Crossing Guard

Mrs. Joe Hudgins helps some A&M Consolidated school children across the crossing at Highway 6 and Jersey Street. Mrs. Hudgins took over the new post recently to replace a policeman who had previously been stationed there between 7:30 a. m. to 8:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. until 4:30 p. m. The City of College Station and the A&M Consolidated Schools share the expense of the guard.

Industrial Editing, Writing Conference Planned Nov. 14

Educational research in a field of journalism that directly concerns all A&M students and their future work, that of industrial editing and writing, will bring to the Aggie campus on Nov. 14 a one-day industrial editing conference. This conference will be designed to acquaint students with the role that journalism plays in their chosen field. The program is being sponsored by the A&M Journalism Advisory Council, and will be presented by members of the Houston Chapter of the International Council of Industrial Editors. Top men in the fields of industrial publishing, public relations and advertising will be here to speak and show films illustrating the part industrial writing and editing plays in their industry.

This conference is the product of a study to find out why enough qualified people, well versed in the journalism of their technical field, are not being turned out by American colleges and universities today.

Chemistry Offers Research Grants

Robert I. Welch Foundation Undergraduate Research Scholarships are now available in the Department of Chemistry for students interested in certain areas of original research, according to Dr. H. K. Zimmerman, professor of chemistry.

Requirements for appointments include interest, demonstrated proficiency, a creditable academic record and financial need. Each appointment will be made for one semester.

In order to be eligible for re-appointment, the student's research work must have been judged satisfactory by his supervisor and he must also maintain a 2.00 grade point ratio.

Applications are invited from properly qualified members of the senior, junior and sophomore classes, said Zimmerman.

Interested applicants should contact Zimmerman, Room 102, Chemistry Building.

Military Not New To C 'Jock' C. O.

By JAY COLLINS
Battalion Staff Writer
William Victor Hill Jr., commander of C Armor has had an opportunity which many have never had in visiting or living in 44 of the United States during his 21 years.

He spent 11 years in Texas and even though he was born in Carlisle Barracks, Pa., on Dec. 14, 1936, he moved to El Campo, Texas, when one month old. Despite having lived in many states he still claims his allegiance to Texas.

The only thing Bill knew about A&M when he came here was that it was an all-male school. At first he was undecided as to whether to attend A&M or "that other school" in Austin. He first saw the campus during New Student Week and it didn't take him long to get the Aggie spirit.

Military at A&M wasn't anything new to Hill. His father, Lt. Col. William V. Hill Sr., is in the Dental Corps at Ft. Sam Houston and has been in the service for 22 years.

Hill has a brother, Niel, 14, and a sister Carol, 18 who attends Trinity University in San Antonio.

C Composite Holds Bingo-Supper Party

A bingo-supper party sponsored by the wives of C Composite was held in Cashion Cabin at Hensel Park last Sunday afternoon for the members of the all-senior outfit.

There were five couples attending the party, including the Buddy Bolfrasses; the John Quigleys and their daughter, Kim; the Dave Elys; the John Ratcliffs; and the Clyde Tews with their daughter, Janna Caryl.

After a covered dish supper with each family bringing their own food, the couples played bingo with small household items serving as prizes for the winners of each game.

Information please: The chief difference between regular (all-purpose) flour and cake flour is that the former contains more gluten. Gluten is the elastic sticky substance in flour that helps to give baked products such as bread their resilient porous structure. Cake flour helps make tender cakes and muffins.

In his travels throughout the United States he has attended several schools. During his high school years he attended a different one every year finally graduating from George Washington High School in Alexandria, Va., in 1955.

He lettered in football, track, and crew at George Washington and was an outstanding athlete. He is majoring in personnel and administration.

The hobbies which take up much of his spare time are hunting, fishing, swimming and modern jazz. His favorite girl is Suzy Shaw, a San Antonio girl, who is a cute brunette whose picture is the "foremost attraction on his desk."

The subject of his address will be "Current Issues in Higher Education." Members of the Conference Advisory Council are E. M. Potter, dean, Tyler Junior College; Joseph E. Davis, dean, Amarillo Junior College; Sterling Fly, president, Southwest Texas Junior College, Uvalde; Travis Williamson, dean, Panola Junior College, Carthage; Tom Spencer, president, South Plains Junior College, Levelland; Conrad Vernon, dean-registrar, LeTourneau Institute, Longview; and E.
