

Frogs Snap Aggie Jinx, 24-8

Milstead Plows Through

Charley Milstead bows his head and smashes up a sizeable gain in Saturday afternoon's through the Texas Christian line and picks game.

It's not yet spring in Aggieland so TCU jumped the calendar ahead six months and played an April Fools joke on the Cadets, downing the jinxed Ags 24-8.

The Horned Frogs scored the first two times they had the ball to take a 12-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and at the half. TCU scored again in the third for an 18-0 lead and finally in the fourth for a 24-0 advantage before the Farmers moved 69 yards on nine plays for a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game.

TCU pretty much had everything its way on the ground, racking up 184 yards to A&M's 62 via that route. The Frogs offense netted 289 yards total offense to the Ags' 299.

A&M came out throwing and completed 19 passes—16 of them by tailback Charley Milstead—for a 237-yard total. The blond junior racked up 180 yards personally.

Fate seemed against the Aggies from the start. In the first quarter alone they drew seven penalties for 55 yards, then followed it up with three fumbles, two of them costing A&M touchdowns.

Milstead's passing never looked better, but the pass-catching of wingbacks Randy Sims and Powell Berry and end John Tracey also was outstanding. Myers later called Sims and Berry "A&M's best two men on the field."

It was just not A&M's afternoon to play ball. In the third quarter, with first down and goal to go from the three, Milstead was hit hard as he plunged through the line and fumbled the ball all the way out of the end zone for an automatic touchback that gave TCU possession on the 20.

In the final seconds of the first half the Aggies had marched 69 yards downfield to TCU's 1. Reserve fullback Luther Hall made two plunges at the line falling short each time before the ball went over on downs.

Besides those two attempts, the Cadets went 42 yards to the TCU 35 in the first quarter and 50 yards to the 16 in the second.

The Aggies finally got fired up in the last quarter and started to roll. Milstead hit Berry with a pass good for 17 yards and a first down, then lost 10 on a running play. The cocky junior then hit Berry for 11, 17, 17 and 13 yards for the touchdown. He then stepped back and completed his last pass of the night to reserve end Travis Nevill for the conversion.

McLain Quits Ag Squad

The Aggies reviewed movies of the TCU game, heard a scouting report on Baylor and began preparations for this week's Baylor game during Monday night's workout.

Coach Jim Myers announced he was pleased with his wingbacks, Sophomores Randy Sims and Powell Berry, and stated that "they are my wingbacks from now on." With the injured Jon Few out all of last week Sims and Berry took over the wingback position in good shape.

As far as the Aggie line was concerned Myers had little to say. "(Ken) Beck was our only lineman that came close to giving a good performance against TCU," the Aggie coach said.

Because of the poor performance of the line the defensive secondary got a good workout and received the plaudits of the Aggie coaches. Other pleasing items about the game revealed a sharp passing attack and the season's top pass receiving effort.

Myers announced at the end of practice that Bubba McLain, reserve back, had quit the team because he was "unsatisfied." The shifty Ag had been the team's break-away man.

Position changes announced were Wayne Labra to blocking back, Tommy Howard to third string guard and Luther Hall to tailback. Myers said that Hall and Ed Dudley would alternate in that position, one of them playing fullback while the other was at the tailback slot.
