

Hear the Nation's Top Personalities at the Fourth Student Conference on National Affairs

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

"How We Can Alleviate Pan American Tensions"
Wednesday, December 10, 1958 — 8:00 P. M.

DR. KENNETH HOLLAND

Dr. Holland has been President of the Institution of International Education, Inc., since 1950 and has made a career of promoting international understanding through educational exchange. The speaker, once an IIE exchange student himself, is the author of "Youth in European Labor Camps" and of many articles and booklets on international education. As a youth in 1935, Holland was appointed Associate Director of the American Youth Commission of the American Council on Education. During the time he was Assistant Director of the Office of International Information and Cultural Affairs in the State Department he was responsible for planning the administration of the Fulbright Act.

"Random Reflections on International Trade"
Wednesday, December 10, 1958 — 2:00 P. M.
Memorial Student Center Ballroom

S. G. RAMACHANDRAN

S. G. Ramachandran, First Secretary (Commercial), Embassy of India, Washington, D. C., is a man of varied experiences in many different commercial and business endeavors. Since 1933 he has travelled widely in India, Europe, the Far East and the United States in his work with the Government of India. He has held such positions as Assistant Controller of Rubber of the Government of India, Directorate General of Industries and Supplies, Under Secretary of the Ministry of Industry and Supply, Agent of the Indian Government in Malaya, and Private Secretary of the Minister of Commerce and Secretary.

"How World Tensions Are Caused by the Electronic and Jet Transport Age"
Thursday, December 11, 1958 — 4:00 P. M.

MR. ARTHUR T. HADLEY

Mr. Hadley, News Development Editor of the New York Herald Tribune, New York City, has made a name for himself not only as a newspaperman in New York City, but also as a military man, a free lance writer, radio announcer and producer, author, lecturer and political writer. As a captain in World War II he pioneered the development of combat psychological warfare with the 2nd Armored Division. After being discharged from the Army he began free-lancing in New York City. During that time he covered presidential campaigns and wrote a book on politics called "The Joy Wagon." As news development editor he is in charge of advance planning for the New York Herald Tribune.

"Sources of Tension— National and International"

PANEL DISCUSSION

"Foreign Aid"

Friday, December 12, 1958 — 8:00 — MSC Ballroom
Mr. Michael V. Forrestal, Moderator

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Wednesday, December 10, 1958

2:00 - 3:45 p. m. — First Plenary Session
Mr. S. G. Ramachandran, First Secretary (Commercial), Embassy of India. Topic—
"Random Reflections on International Trade."

8:00 - 9:30 p. m. — Second Plenary Session
Dr. Kenneth Holland, President, Institute of International Education, Inc. Topic—
"How We Can Alleviate Pan-American Tensions"

Thursday, December 11, 1958

4:00 - 5:30 p. m.
Mr. Arthur T. Hadley, News Development Editor, New York Herald Tribune, Topic—
"How World Tensions Are Caused by the Electronic and Jet Transport Age"

8:00 - 10:00 p. m. — Third Plenary Session
Major General Charles B. Westover, Director of Plans, Strategic Air Command, Offutt
Air Force Base. Topic—"National Security and World Tensions"

Friday, December 12, 1958

8:00 - 10:00 p. m. — Fourth Plenary Session - Foreign Aid
Congressman William Jennings Bryan Dorn, U. S. Representative from South Carolina.
Topic—"How Foreign Aid Can Increase Tension"
Mr. Thomas E. Mann, Assistant Secretary of State for Economic Affairs. Topic—
"How Foreign Aid Can Decrease Tension"
Mr. Michael V. Forrestal, Attorney, Shearman, Sterling & Wright. Moderator

Saturday, December 13, 1958

12:15 - 1:45 — Luncheon and Fifth Plenary Session
Congressman William Jennings Bryan Dorn, U. S. Representative from South Carolina.
Topic: "How We Can Resolve the Problems Causing National and International Tensions"

Maj. Gen. Charles B. Westover
Maj. Gen. Westover, a native Alaskan, will speak on the topic of "National Security and World Tensions." He is present Director of Plans for the Air Force's Strategic Air Command, Offutt Air Force Base, Neb. As an AF command pilot he is credited with 300 combat hours and 42 combat missions, with a total flying time of over 3700 hours.

Congressman
William Jennings Bryan Dorn
Congressman Dorn, U. S. Representative from South Carolina, will speak at a panel discussion entitled "How Foreign Aid Can Increase Tension." He will also give the closing address Saturday at 12:15 p. m. on "How We Can Resolve the Problems Causing National and International Tension." He was first elected to Congress in 1946 and was one of the youngest members of the 80th Congress.

No admission charge. You are guests of

The Great Issues Committee and Student Conference On National Affairs