Army's Dawkins Presented With '58 Heisman Trophy

NEW YORK (AP)—Army's All-American halfback, Pete Dawkins, was honored Wednesday for having no peers on the college gridiron and then went on to prove that he has few in the field of amateur diplomacy.

The West Point senior was feted at a luncheon at the Downtown Athletic Football Writers Assn. as the 1958 recipient of the club's Heisman Trophy. He received the trophy at a dinner Wednesday night.

The Royal Oak, Mich., native, who also has few peers academically in West Point history, touched on subjects ranging from pro football to the advantages and disadvantages of playing football for Army, and never pinched a toe.

"Sure, I've thought about pro football," the blond, solidly built football captain said. "It's been in the back of my mind and I think it is a fine opportunity for a young man to get started in life. But it's incompatible with my military career at this time and I'm not contemplating it."

Impressive Frosh Cagers Clash With Rugged Rangers

By BILL HICKLIN
Battalion Sports Writer

The impressive Texas Aggie Fish cagers, fresh from a 70-45 pounding of the University of Houston Kittens, journey to Kilgore today for a 7:30 p.m. clash with the also impressive Kilgore Junior College Rangers.

The Rangers will be seeking their fifth victory of the young season against but one defeat—that to the SMU Colts last Monday night.

Fish Coach Shelby Metcalf has only praise for the Rangers. And he should know, having coached two of the Kilgore stars, Gary Duncan and Elbert Kirk, during their high school days at Cayuga. Mark and the fabulous Stanley twins, Pat and Don, from Buna, were nominated to the All-Tournament team at the recent Gulfport, Miss., Invitational Tournament, which the Rangers won with ease.

"It again looks like they're the number one junior college team in state this year," said Metcalf.

No lineup changes were expected as Metcalf was pleased with the Fish performance against the Kittens. "They looked good," stated the mentor, "particularly for a first game performance."

Don Riggan and Riki Wagborne, both sporting stitches above the right eye from a collision with each other during the first half of the Houston game, will be ready for action.

Riggan, a 6-10 center from Houston Milby, will team with 6-5 John Keller and Gary White under the boards. Ron Sheldon from Woodstock, Conn., and the versatile Carroll Broussard will man the guard positions.

Broussard, a high school All-American from Port Arthur, dominated the statistics of the only Fish contest, scoring 24 points. He hit 9 of 13 field goal attempts for a nifty .692 percentage from the floor, and also sank 6 of 8 free throws for a percentage of .750.

White and Riggan follow Broussard in the scoring column, with White chalking up 12 and Riggan 10.

Riggan was particularly impressive from the floor, dunking 5 of 7 for a .714 percentage during his limited first half performance. Sheldon and Keller, with nine and six respectively, round out the scoring for the starters.

The Fish sank 30 of 69 chances from the floor for a brilliant .435 team percentage; and also hooped 10 of 15 free tosses at a .667 percentage.
