College to Honor 25-Year Staffers At Christmas Fete

Staff members completing 25 years of service this year at A&M will be honored at the annual Christmas dinner here on the night of Dec. 17.

Twenty-six honorees will be presented with 25-year service pins by Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the college and system.

All staff members of the system employed at College Station and their families are invited to the informal dinner and program which will be held at Sbis Hall at 7 p.m. Other interested citizens of the Bryan-College Station area are invited to attend.

Among the honored guests will be all retired members of the system staff residing in this area.

The program will include Christmas music on the organ by Mrs. A. B. Medlen. The Singing Cadets, under the direction of Bill Turner, will also be featured.

Following greetings by President Harrington, the Christmas message will be given by Dr. A. A. Price, dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. A. M. Sorenson of the Department of Animal Husbandry, will be the master of ceremonies.

Tickets are $1.50 each and can be purchased at the Memorial Student Center, offices of the deans and department heads of the college and at the headquarters of the Agricultural Extension Service, Agricultural Experiment Station, Engineering Extension Service, Engineering Experiment Station and the Texas Forest Service.

Four Bryan-College Station coeds—Anna Parsons, Margaret Berry, Joyce Horn and Betty Rankin—are members of the choir directed by Miss Virginia Irvin.

"Ceremony of Carols" by Benjamin Britton, will compose the first part of the program. Special parts will be performed by Barbara Thaysen, Jimmy Kay Green and Kay Alewine. Accompanist will be Aurelia Smith.

Part two of the concert will feature traditional Christmas carols, including "Holly and the Ivy," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," "Silent Night," "Away in a Manger," "My Heart Rejoices," "Shepherds' Awake" and "Oh Nightingale." The choir will also sing "Jingle Bells" with a solo by Alice Ann Chambliss.

The program will be closed with "Angel Voices," the traditional

YMCA Fish Council Has Help Sessions

Two sessions on "how to study" have been offered by the Freshman council of the YMCA during the past two weeks.

The sessions, which met in the TV room of the YMCA had as guest speakers Dr. Warren C. Bonney, psychologist at the college hospital and D. Dee Kutach, counselor of The Basic Division.

According to Carl P. Zietlow, associate secretary of the YMCA, there was an appreciable number of students present.

Although the discussions were primarily directed toward the freshmen, members of the other classes were invited to attend.

Zietlow said that more sessions may be scheduled if the previous ones prove to have been helpful and others are desired.

Next Edition Due Of Mitchell Paper

The second edition of the "Mitchell Monitor" is expected to appear sometime this week, said Thomas Sirianni, editor.

The Monitor was started Nov. 14, three days after Sirianni was appointed editor by the Mitchell Dormitory Council.

The first edition was introductory and was chiefly concerned with acquainting the residents of Mitchell Hall with their dorm council members and the paper itself, Sirianni said.

"George! George! Drop the Camels!"

More people are loyal to Camels than any other cigarette today. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best smoke. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. No wonder Camel is the No. 1 cigarette of all brands today!

Fads and fancy stuff are for the birds...
