

Aggies Try Improved Baylor In Third SWC Outing Tonight

The Aggie basketball team, seeking revenge for their 70-65 loss to the Rice Owls, travel to Waco tonight for their third Southwest Conference game of the season—this time against the Baylor Bears.

Baylor, as compared to last year's poor showing in the SWC, is the most improved team in the conference. This year the Bears know what they want to do and do it.

The Bears play a deliberate brand of ball, seeking to shoot a man into an opening and then let the athlete do what comes naturally—make points.

This Baylor team that takes to the hardwood floors tonight is its best in five years. They are a team that could be a top contender for the SWC crown with a break or two.

At forward for the Grizzlies will be team captain Gene McCarley along with Carroll Dawson, one of the top set shot artists in the Southwest.

Strong at the guard positions are Larry Walsh and Bob Turner, a 6-3 athlete. At center will be lanky John Moore, called one of the most improved big men in the conference. Moore stands at 6-8, one inch taller than the Aggie Wayne Lawrence.

As a strong replacement on this rapidly improving club is Bob Tinsley, a forward.

Baylor comes into this game with a 0-2 record, but the two losses were to the conference leading Horned Frogs and the Texas Tech Red Raiders. The Aggies have a 1-1 record, recording a win over SMU and a loss by the Rice Owls.

Leading the Ags will be Neil Swisher, the team's leading gunner with 21 points per game. Swisher is the second high scorer in the SWC.

Opposite Swisher at the other guard position will be defensive ace Wilmer Cox, a 6-3 athlete who has averaged 9.5 points per game in two SWC outings.

At forward for the Farmers will be lanky Wayne Lawrence, a 6-3 performer, and Archie Carroll, A&M's second high scorer with 16 points per game as his average.

Center will be big Jim McNichol, with either Dave Corson, 6-6 junior, or Ernie Turner slated to see some strong action as a replacement.

The A&M Frosh will meet the Baylor Cubs in the night's opening game in Waco.

Gridders Named For Scholastics

DALLAS — Students of engineering and science, recognized as two of the most difficult fields in the college curriculum, dominate the sixth annual All-Scholastic Southwest Conference Football Team, announced here today by editors of the American Peoples Encyclopedia.

Members of the 1958 All-Scholastic team were selected by veteran conference football observers on the basis of their gridiron ability as well as their scholastic standings. To qualify for the squad, each player must have a "B" or better average for the current grading period.

Three of five seniors on the honor list led their teammates on the football field as well as in the classroom as Tom Koenig of SMU, guard; Dale Walker of TCU, center, and Raymond Chilton of Rice, back, all served as football captains.

Other seniors on the team are Billy Dunn, SMU quarterback who directed the Mustangs to important inter-sectional victories over Missouri and Georgia Tech, and Billy Gilbow, University of Arkansas guard who was voted his school's homecoming award for his stellar performance against SMU.

The five juniors on the team are Maurice Duke of Texas and Albert Witcher of Baylor, ends; Jerry Muennink of Texas, tackle; and Charles Milstead of A&M and James Monroe of Arkansas, backs.

Witcher ranked third in the conference in pass receiving with 23 for 268 yards and Duke, a defensive marvel, played an important role in his team's victories over the Oklahoma Sooners and the Texas Aggies. Duke's pass interception and 46-yard return was credited with saving the Baylor game for the Longhorns.

Scholastically the team is led by Dunn and Witcher. Dunn, who is majoring in English at SMU, had a straight A record last semester, and Witcher, a geology major at Baylor, has a similar record. Captain Walker of TCU had four A's and one B last semester. Milstead has been classified as a distinguished student at A&M, and Chilton made the Dean's Honor List at Rice. Duke is on the summa cum laude honor roll at Texas.

NCAA Discusses Letter of Intent

CINCINNATI—Delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. convention Thursday held a long discussion of a national "letter of intent" system of signing athletes who receive financial aid in getting through college.

The only result was a strong indication that the idea is gaining favor, but there still are so many details to be ironed out that it isn't likely to be adopted on a national basis for some time.

East-West Pros Attend Luncheon

LOS ANGELES—The East and West teams in Sunday's Pro Bowl football classic took stock of each other at close range Thursday—across a luncheon table.

They mix it up for charity in Memorial Coliseum. East Coach Jim Lee Howell, West Coach Weeb Ewbank and all 64 players showed up for the luncheon, given by the Los Angeles Rams Fan Club.

McCoy Worries Northwestern

CINCINNATI—The athletic directors of Northwestern University of Miami Fla. agreed Thursday to let their basketball coaches thresh out the status of Mike McCoy, 7-foot basketball player.

McCoy, voted the top high school player in Indiana last year, has transferred from Northwestern to Miami. He was quoted as saying he was unhappy at Northwestern.

Probation Thwarts USC Hopes

CINCINNATI—The NCAA's action today in placing the University of Southern California on probation means the school will not be able to defend its national team championships in three sports this spring.

USC won the NCAA titles in track, tennis and baseball last spring.

American Fourth in Ski Meet

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland—Heidi Mattermaier of West Germany Thursday won the special slalom race of the International Grindelwald Ski Meet. Penny Pitour of Gilford, N. H., finished fourth.

Betsy Snite of Norwich, Vt., who won the giant slalom Wednesday fell at the start of the first of the two runs and finished far back.

"I don't mind your running out of gas—but Camels!"

Many a girl would rather walk home than do without Camels. For the 10th straight year, this cigarette outsells every other — every filter, every king-size, every regular. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. Today as always, the best tobacco makes the best smoke.

Don't give in to fads and fancy stuff . . .
Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL
