

Soviet's Plan for Germans Draws Heavy Fire from Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday denounced in strong language the Soviet Union's plan to demilitarize and isolate Germany. "An exercise in futility," he called it. But Eisenhower, speaking at a National Press Club luncheon, offered "any assurance, any material move" to overcome Soviet fears of future German aggression.

Flower Program Due Women's Club

"Flowers and Fanfare" will be presented by Mrs. Madge Demmer of Houston to the A&M Women's Social Club tomorrow afternoon at 3 in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom.

Mrs. Demmer has done extensive work with fashion shows and has conducted schools for commercial florists in many parts of the United States. She is a life member of the Texas State Florists Assn.

In her lecture Friday she will make floral arrangements for tables and special occasions as well as corsages for children and matrons.

Students of the Department of Floriculture and two professional models from Houston will assist her.

Wives of the members of the Department of Mathematics will be hostesses. Mrs. E. C. Klipple will be chairman.

Eight Boy Scouts Snare Nine Awards

Eight members of Boy Scout Troop 450, sponsored by College Station Lions Club, received nine awards at a Court of Honor Tuesday night in the Old Science Hall.

Dr. R. J. Beamer, Scoutmaster, gave the welcoming address and introduced the guests to the court.

Charles E. Casper, Troop Committee Chairman presented the following scouts with promotions and merit badges.

Bobby Anderson, Star Scout and merit badge; Bob Jones and James Beaver, both 2nd Class Scouts; David Stewart, Tenderfoot; and Bill Jones, Jim Kelly, Gerald McCaulley and Barry Briggs, merit badges.

Plan Open House

An open house will be held Sunday afternoon between 3 and 5 in the new District 17 Texas Highway Department Headquarters building on Highway 6 North in Bryan.

The President's sharp words gave backing to an even stronger denunciation of the Soviet plan for Germany made Tuesday by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who called it brutal, stupid and probably unworkable.

Dulles won from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee support for his insistence that the West be allowed to keep troops in Berlin and have free access to the city. The committee Wednesday informally approved a resolution expressing its sentiments after a closed-door discussion with Dulles.

In his statement for the committee, which was made public, Dulles said America must be prepared to face up to perhaps generations of self-sacrifice and self-discipline to counter the economic and military growth of communism.

The expressions by the U.S. foreign policy leaders added up to a reaffirmation of unity on such questions as Germany. They came as Eisenhower and Dulles prepared to talk here informally this weekend with Soviet Dep. Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.

Eisenhower said in his press club talk he has no intention of making any new proposals to Mikoyan because that would transform the informal chat into a kind of negotiating conference.

The President said he wants to find out from Mikoyan, No. 2 Kremlin leader, whether the Soviets "are so sick of the armament burden that they want to find a way out of this dilemma." Eisenhower added that Mikoyan should be trying to find out the same thing from him.

Journalism Offers Radio - TV Course

Radio and television news writing and editing, listed in the college catalog as Journalism 311, will be offered by the Department of Journalism for the spring semester.

This year, for the first time, actual work in television will be possible through the cooperation of the School of Veterinary Medicine which has installed a closed circuit television unit.

In the past, when the college owned and operated Radio Station WTAW, students in the class put on a 15-minute live voice newscast daily during the last half of the semester. If arrangements can be made with the privately-owned radio and television stations in Bryan, students will receive training in the actual dissemination of live radio and TV news this semester.

The course, taught by Otis Miller, is a three hour credit course with two hours of theory and two hours of practice weekly. It will meet for theory on Monday and Wednesday at 11 a.m. Lab period has tentatively been scheduled for Tuesday from 2-5 p.m.

Social Whirl

Architecture Wives' Society will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Birch Room of the Memorial Student Center.

Fall and spring members of the Argie Wives' Council will meet Thursday at 5:15 in the YMCA to have their pictures made for the Aggieland.

TTI Staffers Participate In Conference

The director and nine staff members of the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M College participated in the 38th annual meeting of the Highway Research Board in Washington, D. C., Jan. 5-9.

The group was headed by Fred J. Benson, dean of engineering, and director of the Texas Transportation Institute. He met with representatives of the Bureau of Public Roads and the Automobile Safety Foundation and presided as chairman at the meeting of the Bituminous - Soil Stabilization committee.

Research personnel attending from the Institute were C. J. Keese, B. F. K. Mullins and Henson K. Stephenson, research engineers; Truman R. Jones Jr., associate research engineer; William G. Adkins and Charles V. Wootan, associate research economist; W. R. McCasland, research assistant; Charles Pinnell, assistant research engineer; and Frederick S. White, assistant research librarian.

Research papers presented by the group from the Institute included the following:

"Land Value Impacts of Expressways in Dallas, Houston and San Antonio, Texas" by Adkins; "Frequencies of Various Levels of Stress in Highway Bridges" by Stephenson; "Creep and Shrinkage in Lightweight Concrete" by Jones; and "Freeway Traffic Accident Analysis and Safety Study" by Keese and Mullins.
