

Aggie Football Award Winners

Ags Receive Awards At Football Banquet

Gordon LeBoeuf, Ken Beck and Allen Goehring won the top awards at the annual football and cross country banquet held Saturday night in Sbis Hall.

LeBoeuf, Port Neches junior back converted from the fullback slot, received the Bert Pfaff Award as best blocker; Beck, senior tackle from Minden, La., received the A. M. Waldrop Award for the best lineman; and Goehring, junior guard from San Marcos, was presented the Herb Smith Award for the "outstanding little man." Goehring weighs in at a hefty 185.

Two other awards were presented at the dinner presided over by Morris Franks, the humorous Houston columnist. The Houston A&M Club award for the "greatest lover" went to Beck while Ed Dudey, tailback on the 1958 club, presented an award to Coach John Michels, who resigned recently to join the Canadian pro ranks.

During the banquet Coach Jim Myers introduced members of the 1958 football team and Coach Charley Thomas presented the cross country team. Myers complimented his team for the "outstanding" effort they produced this season in winning four and losing six.

Myers said the squad wasn't the fastest, the strongest or the greatest in the school's history, but the players extended themselves above and beyond the call of duty in several games.

Males have a higher death rate than females through all ages of life, the disparity being largely due to male susceptibility to accidents and heart ailments.

Prominent Semi-Pro Mentor Named Ag Diamond Coach

Tom Chandler, noted baseball coach at perennially powerful Adamson High School in Dallas and of the semi-pro Alpine Cowboys, was selected to become head baseball coach at Texas A&M, effective Feb. 1.

A product of the Dallas public schools and Baylor University, the 33-year-old ex-Marine has led Adamson to four district titles and the state finals twice since 1952.

Also since 1952, Chandler coached the Cowboys to two state titles and finished high nationally the past two summers.

Among his charges at Alpine, Chandler lists Aggie-exes Wally Moon and Yale Lary, along with current Cadet backstop ace Gary Herrington. Other prominent diamond stars include major leaguers Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Jack Sanford of the Philadelphia Phillies.

After graduating from Adamson in 1943 where he was a baseball and football standout, Chandler enlisted in the Marine Corps and served 25 months. Under the Marine V-12 program, he quarterbacked Arkansas A&M from 1943-45, and then attended Baylor where he was an all-conference catcher and first baseman twice in addition to being team captain all three years.

A 1948 graduate of Baylor, Chandler then played two years of pro ball in the Pittsburgh chain before coaching Griener Junior College to the Dallas city championship twice.

Chandler played at Alpine in 1950-51 and was named both general and field manager in 1952. The Cowboys, boasting many Southwest Conference stars, captured the state semi-pro crown in 1952 and 1958. They placed third in 1958, along with taking the West Texas championship in 1953, '54 and '58.

He has also been serving as a Milwaukee Braves scout.

Chandler was born in Greenville, Texas on March 19, 1925, and is married to the former Wildean Drummond of Waco. The couple has no children.

Fish, Kittens Meet In Saturday Clash

The Texas Aggie freshman basketball team, led by 6-5 Carroll Broussard of Port Arthur, takes a 4-2 record into Houston Saturday night when it meets the Houston Kittens in a preliminary to the Aggie-Cougar varsity game.

Broussard is the scoring leader with 123 points and a 20.5 average; has the highest field goal percentage .558 and is second in rebounding with 62.

The Fish, coached by Shelby Metcalf, dropped a 66-68 verdict to the Texas Shorthorns in their latest action. The Fish have split with the talented Kilgore JC Rangers and have beaten Houston, Baylor and Rice frosh teams.
