These nine Aggies will be part of the show in G. Rollie White Coliseum tonight when they tangle with the Hollywood Queens. Kneeling are Dick Henderson, Buck Pre-

Keglers Rip Ponies, Remain Undefeated

The Aggie varsity bowling team remained undefeated Saturday, taking four of five contests from the Southern Methodist University Mustangs, 4501-4354, in Dallas. High individual honors for the match went to the Farmers' Don Jones, who averaged 194 for the five games. Teammate Bob Brown followed with a match average of 187.

Larry Sharp of the Ponies won honors for the highest single game of the match, rolling a 266. Sharp also pressed Brown closely in the total pin race with a 186 average. Ken Savage of the Aggies bowled the second high game, tipping 232 pins.

A&M's second team was not quite so successful as the Mustang second five took four of five contests. Jerry Reynolds of the Aggies captured total pin honors for the meet with a match average of 184.

In a special doubles match held after the team match, the Aggies'

Don Jones and Larry Dantzler whipped SMU's Lu Luciano and Haskell Branch by a score of 1109-963.

The two teams will meet in a rematch at the Memorial Student Center Bowling Lanes at 2 p.m. on Feb. 21.

Sports in Brief

As a highlight and sidelight, it is reported that Kelly Chapman will join Coach Charley Thomas' track team at the conclusion of basketball season. As a high jumper, of course.

Daffy Trotters Feature Variety Show Tonight

The clowning Harlem Globetrotters tangle with the capable Philadelphia Sphas in the feature of a huge variety show tonight at 7:30 p.m. in G. Rollie White Coliseum. In the opener of the doubleheader exhibition, the efficient Hollywood Queens girls' stunts will meet the Aggie All-Stars.

hand balancer with a world-wide reputation, are added performers brought along by Trotter Owner-Coach Abe Saperstein to perform during the evening. In the main event, the Globetrotters will pit their usual array of talented court jesters against the strong Sphas.

Featured by the Trotters are veterans J. C. Gipson, 6-8 pivot man, and 6-4 Stan Burrell. Elmer Robinson, oldest player in the Harlem ranks and now assistant coach to Saperstein, along with dribbling wizard Leon Hillard, Johnnie Klein and 6-4 Willie Thomas, is among the top Globetrotter performers.

The Sphas, oldest pro team in the world in point of service, boast former Toledo University star Jim Gerber, 6-7 center, 6-5 Ron Ellis from Miami of Ohio, Tony Corey, 6-4 forward from Temple University, and 6-2 Mike Feinstein. Philadelphia, playing its 41st season, has twice broken Globetrotter win streaks past the 100-game mark. The Easterners are the only quintet to top the Globetrotters in continuous years of playing. The Trotters, now in their 32nd year of world tours, entered the current campaign with 6,114 victories against but 313 setbacks. An unusual contest will be presented in the opener when the Hollywood Queens, an all girl aggregation, does battle with the Aggie All-Stars, a team composed of Ag track, baseball and golf players. Joan Brietkrus from Buffalo, N. Y. and Jackie Wrage, 6-5 lass from San Diego, Calif., head the film city cagers. Other Queen hoopsters include 5-8 Lucille Fox and 5-7 Dottie Vonder Haar. The Aggie All-Stars may prove to be worthy opponents to the pretty Queens, fielding a lanky squad with such performers as 6-5 Al Jones, Ag golfer; 6-6 Wayne Schaper, Cadet baseball star; Paul Madura, 6-5 trackster, Dick Hickerson, 6-4 diamond performer, and 6-3 Bobby Thomas.

Golf Hopefuls In Competition For Team Slots

Qualifications for positions on the Aggie golf team are well underway with sophomore Billy Martindale pacing the varsity competitors and Jim Fetters leading the freshman pack.

Figures released yesterday through golf Coach Joe Fagan show Martindale totaling a four over par 424 through 108 qualifying holes—a 15-stroke advantage over second place Ed Triplett.

In the frosh ranks, competition is somewhat keener as Fetters' 11 over par 435 tops Dicky Duple by a mere stroke. Fagan said the competitions would continue through the middle of March to determine the top performers for intercollegiate and conference competition. He added that he usually carries from four to six golfers on the team.

Others in the running for varsity posts are Binky Mitchella, one stroke short of Triplett at 440; Ralph Toland, 447; Tommy Fonseca, 457; Al Jones, 453; Buck Prewett, 462, and Arthur Hull, 467. Mitchella, Jones and Prewett are returning lettermen. Johnny Johnson, 449; Rudy Belmares, 456; John Lively, 458; Wayne Stroman, 462; and Jerry Holland, 472, follow Fetters and Duple for freshman posts.
