Lou Costello Dies After Second Attack

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Fat, funny Lou Costello, who with partner Bud Abbott comprised one of the entertainment world's most successful teams, died Tuesday of his second heart attack in a week. He was 53.

Abbott, 63, his longtime straight man and sidekick on screen and off, was at his home in nearby Encino. Friends sent word to him at once.

Abbott sobbed at the news. "My God, what can I say?" he cried. "My heart is broken. I've lost the best pal anyone ever had."

Costello, who started in burlesque, clowning with Abbott in vaudeville, movies, the stage, radio, television and nightclubs.

The two split amicably, in July 1957. Since, Lou had worked harder than ever as a single in nightclubs and in dramatic roles on TV.

Bud has been taking it easy. Costello's wife, Ann, had left Doctor's Hospital just a few minutes before the final attack.

Costello's manager, Eddie Sherman, said Lou entered the hospital last Wednesday and his condition seemed much improved.

Besides his widow, Costello is survived by three daughters, Patricia, 22, Carol Lou, 20, and Christine, 11.

His last movie was finished only in January. It was a science-fiction epic, "Lou Costello and His 30-Foot Bride." He had not appeared publicly since.

The most famous of the comedian's routines was a sketch about a baseball team. He wrote it more than 20 years ago.

The sketch "Who's on First?" has been used thousands of times. It helped make millionaires of Costello and Abbott.

Their recorded sketch was given a spot in the Baseball Hall of

Do You Think for Yourself? (HERE'S A TEST THAT WILL TELL YOU! *)

1. Can you honestly say that you've made an effort to understand modern art? YES  NO
2. If you were to break a New Year's resolution, would you renew it on the spot rather than wait until next year? YES  NO
3. Would you be unwilling to play a single game of "Russian Roulette" for a million dollars? YES  NO
4. Are you fully convinced that the saying "Money does not buy happiness" is completely true? YES  NO
5. Would you be at all hesitant to rent a desirable apartment where the previous occupants had died under mysterious circumstances? YES  NO
6. If you were walking to town in a hurry, would you be unwilling to accept a ride in a garbage truck? YES  NO
7. Would you be reluctant to participate in an important medical experiment which, though not dangerous, would cause some discomfort? YES  NO
8. If you had an independent income sufficient for all your needs, could you be happy never to go to work? YES  NO
9. Can an extravagant claim make you switch from one filter cigarette to another? YES  NO

The truth is, thinking men and women aren't influenced by extravagant claims—especially when choosing a filter cigarette. They use their heads! They know what they want. They know that only VICEROY gives them a thinking man's filter... a smoking man's taste.

*If you have answered "YES" to three out of the first four questions, and "NO" to four out of the last five... you certainly do think for yourself!

Familiar pack or crush-proof box.
