Radar Network Under Construction

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The North American Air Defense Command reported Thursday a long-range radar network is being built to warn against Soviet missile attacks.

The network is being constructed in the Arctic wastes in Alaska and Greenland and will cover the Soviet land mass from the Pacific Ocean to Poland.

The radar station chain is known as the Ballistic Missile Early Warning System BMEWS. It is costing one billion dollars, the NORAD announcement said.

The system will be ready for operation next year and includes three radar screens at Clear, Alaska, and four at Thule, Greenland. NORAD said the screens are designed to have a 3,000-mile range. They are intended to pick up Soviet intercontinental ballistic missiles five minutes after launching.

150 Teachers Due For Session Here

One hundred and fifty elementary and high school teachers and administrators and college personnel engaged in the training of teachers are expected to participate in an area conference on student teaching here Monday.

The conference is being sponsored by A&M and Sam Houston State College in cooperation with the Texas Association for Student Teaching and the Texas Education Agency.

The conference theme is "Roles and Responsibilities of Public Schools and Colleges in the Preparation of Teachers Through Student Teaching."

The general assembly will be held 9 a. m. in the Ballroom of the MSC with the welcome talk to be given by Dr. John B. Page, dean of the college. Dr. Milo E. Kearney, director of Teacher Education and Certification, Texas Education Agency, will deliver the principal address.

Bishop Richard E. Dicus

the world in a different light

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

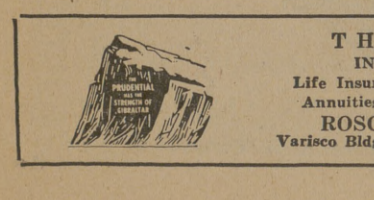

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	14	1-9
Monday	Mark	2	1-12
Tuesday	Mark	3	1-5
Wednesday	Mark	5	25-34
Thursday	Mark	5	35-43
Friday	Mark	7	31-37
Saturday	Mark	10	46-52

How often, when Dad would finish reading the Bible, he would hold the Book gently in his hands and look out the window. . . . I used to wonder what he saw—what vision against the setting sun! And once I blurted the tremendous question: "Daddy, can you see God?" He kept on gazing off into space, but a smile crossed his lips. "No, son, a man doesn't see God! He feels God. And then he looks out his window and sees the world in a different light." I grew up to discover what he meant. His Bible—his Church—his convictions have become mine. And when I look at the world . . . it's through Dad's window. One day my son will grow up . . .
