NOTE TO THE VOTERS ON A&M CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION
Time brings many changes, but it should not dull the validity of a gentlemen's agreement made in good faith and after due recognition of all facts at hand. Since the consolidation of the Wellborn, Union Hill, & Shiloh school districts with College Station district in 1928—and until the recent mushrooming growth of College Station, the rural districts have supported A&M Consolidated School—literally supported, since they represented more than 80% of the tax income. Yet they did not demand the lion's share of representation! They agreed on two representatives on a board of seven men. Now that the off-campus population of College Station has so increased, the rural people are in great danger of losing this representation. Why? Because we, the voters, are not aware of the gentleman's agreement—that is, representation by area. The ballot shows no area distinction.
Please Vote — Honor the Gentleman's Agreement

AUSTRIAN LUTHERAN MEMBERSHIP DOUBLES
VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Membership in the Austrian Lutheran Church has more than doubled in the last 10 years—mostly due to the influx of thousands of Lutheran refugees from Communist lands to the east.

I, G. B. Hensarling Jr., am a candidate for trustee in the A&M Consolidated School for the expired term of Mr. Ernest Redman of the Wellborn community. Attended and graduated in 1936 from this school. Retired from the Navy in 1957 after completing 20 years service.

I have six children—five in school—therefore feel a deep interest in the best for our school.
If you elect me, I shall strive earnestly to promote the welfare of our school.
Mit Williams and I are running for the two places allotted by the Gentlemen's agreement as set up by the School Board in 1928—and continued until the present time. Paid Political Advertisement
