

Owls Deflate Aggies, 4-3

Rice added another puncture to A&M's slowly deflating baseball balloon Saturday when they pushed across three runs in the sixth and one more in the seventh to edge the Aggies, 4-3.

The win pushed the Owls into undisputed first place position in the Southwest Conference race with a 3-1 record while the Farmers sank into the gloom of the second division with a 2-2 conference mark and an 8-4 season record.

A total of some 2,000 fans crowded Rice's baseball field to watch the two teams battle for the No. 1 spot among the conference giants, and it was a tight battle until the sixth.

Percy Sanderson, junior from Nederland, toed the mound for the Aggies and completely baffled the Owl hitters until that fateful sixth, yielding only two singles up to that point and facing only 20 batters.

Richard Kristinik, Rice third baseman, opened the action for the Owls in the sixth with a single and then advanced to second on a steal. Lynwood Stallings, Owl shortstop, walked and both advanced on Fred Burns' single to load the bases.

Sanderson walked the next man up scoring one run. A slow ground ball to Aggie shortstop Ralph Plumlee was then thrown over the first baseman's head, allowing another run to cross the plate.

A&M's first baseman, Dick Hickerson managed to grab the ball and throw to third, trying to nail the runner, but another miscue on the play allowed the third run to cross the plate.

In the seventh, Rice's lone run was scored on singles by Murray, Jerry Epstein and Burns.

A&M's scoring began in the second when Garry Herrington, Plumlee and Dink Patterson slashed out singles to score two runs. Their final tally came in the sixth when Plumlee walked, stole second and was singled in by outfielder Stuffey Davis.

The Farmers again jump into SWC action when they face the TCU Horned Frogs today at 3 p.m. at College Station.

Ag Fish Paste Owlets For Fifth Victory, 7-3

The Aggie Fish took advantage of steady pitching by Gary Priddy and a leaky defense to down the Rice Owlets, 7-3, here Saturday.

The win was the freshmen's fifth of the year against one defeat.

Priddy, left-hander from Fort Worth, went the distance for his third straight victory without a loss. Although he gave up 13 hits and had the bases loaded twice, he tightened up in the clutch.

The Fish collected nine hits off Bill Flynn who went all the way for the Owlets. John Burton was the big gun with three hits and three runs driven across. Outfielder A. L. French hit a solo homer for the Fish in the second to tie the score at one all.

Rice counted in the first on Lee Raesner's double and a single by Gary West, one of four for the afternoon for the Owlet center-fielder. After French's homer tied the score in the second, the Fish went ahead to stay in the third on two consecutive walks and an error on a ground ball.

Rice scored single runs in the sixth on Flynn's single and in the eighth on a walk, single and wild pitch.

A&M sacked up the game with three in the seventh, all unearned. Two errors, a walk, hit batsman and two singles did the damage.

The Stanleys, Inc., Sign A&M Letter

The fabulous Stanley twins of Buna and Kilgore Junior College announced Saturday they will play their future basketball for A&M.

The identical, 6-3½ cage stars—Pat and Don—were sought by several universities outside the state and nearly all in Texas. They led Coach Joe Turner's Rangers to the national Junior College championship a year ago and both were named to the NJC All-America team for 1959.

Pat carried a 20.8 scoring average his final season at Kilgore and averaged 14 rebounds, while Don had a 20.1 per game mark and 16 rebounds.

They were the stars at Buna High as Coach Cotton Robinson's team won state titles in 1955, '56 and '57, winning 66 consecutive games. In the 1957 first round game of the Class AA tournament, Pat set a record with 36 points. Two nights later in the final game brother Don hit an all-time high of 51 points.

As freshmen at Kilgore the twins led the Rangers to a 27-2 record and the NJC title. This past season Kilgore posted a 20-6 mark. Two of their teammates a year ago went on to star for major colleges, as Sid Cohen played for the University of Kentucky and Wilmer Cox of Houston played his junior season for A&M.

A&M Coach Bob Rogers calls the Stanley twins "two of the finest players I have ever seen."

The twins will join Cox, their former Kilgore teammate, at A&M next season along with Wayne Lawrence, Kelly Chapman and Elliott Craig from the varsity and
