Righthander Percy Sanderson went the full nine innings in Waco Friday night to tame the Baylor Bears on five hits as the Cadets squeaked their way past the Bruins to post a 2-1 Southwest Conference victory. Sanderson walked seven, struck out ten and helped his own cause

The Perilous Four
 Pitchers hate to see this aggregation step up to the batter's box. All toll the group has 11 doubles and four homers between them. From left to right the outfielders are J. B. Carroll, Byron Barber, Stuffey Davis and Lloyd Stone. Stone is the only non-starter in the group.

Aldo (Buff) Donelli is Columbia University's 10th football coach in 67 seasons.

Spring Sports's Day Scheduled Saturday

Aggie athletes face their busiest weekend of the year Friday and Saturday climaxed by the annual Maroon and White spring football game.

All A&M spring sport teams will be in action before the home folks and thousands of visitors Saturday with the exception of the golf team which meets Baylor here Friday afternoon.

Coach Joe Fagan moved the Southwest conference golf match to make way for the annual high school invitational golf meet on the A&M course all day Saturday.

Other features of Saturday's annual Spring Sports Day will be the Aggie-Rice baseball game at 2 p. m.; a triangular track and field meet between A&M, Rice and SMU at 2:30; a tennis match with Trinity at 1 p. m. and the 7:30 p. m. intrasquad football game.

A&M and Rice originally scheduled to play both Friday and Saturday in Houston this week but now the clubs will play in Houston Friday and return to Kyle Field here Saturday.

at the plate by slamming a double and a single, driving in the tying run in the seventh inning.

The victory gave the Farmers a 4-2 SWC mark and kept the Aggies in the pennant race, a scant half game behind the league leading Texas Longhorns who dropped the Rice Owls Friday. Baylor and Texas Christian are tied for the cellar, each with 2-4 records.

Baylor scored their lone run in the fourth frame when, with two men away, Ed Carrekk and Don Riddle banged two doubles in a row for the marker. Riddle's double was a ground rule affair that occurred when the ball bounced through the screen for what at first went for a home run.

Aggie coach Tom Chandler stormed out of the dugout in protest and the umpires ruled it a ground rule double, sending Riddle back to second.

Chandler and the entire Aggie bench came out of the dugout again in the seventh when Sanderson tried to steal home on a hit and run play, and was successful too, except he was ruled out because Lloyd Stone had interfered at the plate where he was batting. Chandler was thrown out of the game, but the umpire did not enforce his ruling and the fiery Aggie coach was allowed to continue leading his team.

A&M's first tally came in the seventh when Stuffey Davis doubled and scored on Sanderson's single after second baseman Dink Patterson had gone down swinging.

The Farmers went ahead to win in the next inning when first baseman Dick Hickerson lofted a sacrifice fly to score Windel Reed who had advanced on a walk, wild pitch and a sacrifice.

Baylor refused to call it quits in the final two innings and loaded the bases in both frames before the Cadets could quiet the rallies and retire the side.

A&M will host St. Mary's University of San Antonio here today

Aggie Golfing Team Drops Razorbacks

Defending Southwest Conference golf champion Arkansas lost their third straight match of the year Saturday in Fayetteville to the Texas Aggies, 4-2.

The win moved the Farmers into fifth place in the SWC race behind Texas Tech, TCU, Texas and Arkansas. The Cadets boast an 8-10 mark.
