

Officer Training Available For Some College Grads

The U. S. Air Force has initiated an officer training school program M. Sgt. Ray Wagner, Bryan-College Station area recruiter, announced this morning.

The program is primarily for students with mathematics, science and engineering curriculums, he said.

Interested students are eligible to apply as early as 135 days prior to graduation.

Selected candidates will receive three-months officer training at Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio and after completion of the course will be commissioned, said Sgt. Wagner.

Some of the fields in which candidates will receive training after commissioning include navigation, electronic data processing, communications electronics and meteorology.

Interested students can contact Sgt. Wagner at the U. S. Post Office in Bryan on Monday and Thursday as well as Tuesday afternoon.

Aggie Muster program and Ronny Stallings, chairman of the Public Relations Committee, passed copies of the program out to senators.

The 56th annual Aggie Muster will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 in front of the Memorial Student Center. If it is raining before the Muster begins the event will be moved into G. Rollie White Coliseum, Stallings announced.

Congressman Olin E. Teague, '32, will be the principal Muster speaker and will be introduced by President M. T. Harrington, '22. R. N. Conolly, '37, president of the Association of Former Students, will also speak at the 56th anniversary of the Aggie Muster.

In other Senate business, Bill Myers, chairman of the Issues Committee, said that no date had been set to hold the Reveille Fund drive. The date will be announced in the mess halls and five containers will be placed in the mess hall areas for students to put their contributions in.

Myers also announced that contributions are already pouring in for the Texas A&M Memorial Scholarship Fund. Purpose of the fund is for contributions in memory of departed relatives in lieu of flowers. People may mail contributions to the Association of Former Students, and when enough money is accumulated scholarships will be given to students, Myers said.

Harriman Warns Against Helping Save China's Face

WASHINGTON (AP) — Averell Harriman Thursday cautioned against any hasty U. S. moves that might help Red China escape Asian indignation over treatment of the Dalai Lama.

Harriman, a former governor of New York, mutual security director and ambassador to the Soviet Union, generally supported the foreign aid program in testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

He got the backing of another former diplomat - Rep. Chester Bowles D-Conn.—when he said this country "should not be the first to rush in" with recognition of a Tibetan government-in-exile if the Dalai Lama should set one up.

The Dalai Lama, spiritual and temporal leader of the Buddhist Tibetans, fled to India when Red Chinese forces seized his remote mountain capital, Ihasa.

Harriman and Bowles both said the non-Communist world stands to profit from the Tibetan crisis if it brings home to Buddhist and other Asian countries the ruthlessness of communism and its basic hostility to religion.

But they said the effort might be ruined by efforts to give "a cold war twist" to the situation. Harriman said he hopes Asian nations will take a strong stand, which the United States could back up.

However, he agreed with Rep. Walter H. Judd D-Minn that humanitarian efforts by U. S. citizens to help Tibetan refugees would have an excellent effect. Judd is among sponsors of a committee for this purpose.

Sales Clinic Set Here Wednesday

The Division of Business Administration, Houston Sales Executive Club and the Student Marketing Society will sponsor their 10th annual sales clinic Wednesday in Mark Francis Hall.

Carl B. Kreiner, vice president of the Gold Seal Company of Houston will speak at 9 a. m. on Sales, followed at 10 a. m. by Philip Alexander, president of the Cargill Co. of Houston, speaking on advertising. George M. Keith, vice president and general sales manager of Aquatrol, Inc., of Houston, will wrap up the morning session speaking on marketing.

The afternoon session will begin a 2 p. m. with a talk on Retailing by C. Edward Bushner, executive vice president and general manager of the Houston Better Business Bureau. At 3, Rolland Storey, sales promotion manager for Houston Natural Gas Corporation will speak on Sales Management.

Following the afternoon speakers, the winners of the Houston Sales Executive Club Scholarship Awards will be announced. Two awards of $250 each will be presented.

The speakers will allow 10 minutes at the end of each discussion for questions from the floor.

Don Donigan, chairman of the Sales Clinic Committee will preside over both sessions.

MAKE 3 LONG DISTANCE CALLS FOR THE PRICE OF 2

TELEPHONE STATION-TO-STATION

Long distance telephone service is economical anytime. But when you call station-to-station, then it's downright cheap. Actually you can make three calls for the price of two. And there's no sacrifice in service, either . . . just a sizeable saving.

Just tell the operator you will talk to anyone who answers the long distance number you're calling. It's as easy as that to save 30%. And remember you save even more by calling after 6 p. m. any day or all day Sunday. Already low rates are even lower at these times.
