Dr. Hans Pauer, noted authority on the preservation of documents and works of art, will present an illustrated lecture on the Habsburg Monarchy tonight at 8 in the Biological Sciences Lecture Room.

Dr. Pauer, who is on a lecture tour of the United States, is being sponsored for this lecture by the A&M Department of History and Government and the Graduate School.

He studied at the University of Vienna, majoring in modern languages, history of art and the theatre. He received his Ph. D. in 1927 with honors.

In 1933, he entered the Austrian government service as a film specialist and was placed in charge of the audio-visual aids program of the Austrian Ministry of Education. Since 1938, he has been assigned to the Austrian National Library where he rearranged the cataloging of some 250,000 photographic negatives.

Livestock Contest Set Here May 9

The Department of Animal Husbandry is now making preparations for the Little Southwestern Livestock Showmanship Contest to be held on the campus May 9.

Registration for the contest, sponsored by the Saddle and Sirolo Club, will be conducted in the first floor lobby of the Animal Husbandry Building and will continue through April 7.

Contestants competing in the event will be assigned animals belonging to the college and will have a certain amount of time to prepare them for showing.

Judging in the different classifications will be based on showmanship qualities and not on qualities of the animals. Trophies will be awarded to four major classes of livestock—horses, beef, hogs and sheep. The Grand Champion will be picked from the winners of the four classifications.

But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore correct. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!
