Drawing Serious For BSU Speaker

Cartooning is a serious business for Jack Hamm, 43-year old Baylor University art instructor, who will speak at the Baptist Student Union Banquet tomorrow night at 6:30 at Clayton's Restaurant. Each week Hamm sends a sermon, in the form of religious cartoons, free to more than 1,000 newspapers and other publications throughout the U.S. and in over 30 foreign countries. The syndicated drawings reach a public estimated at more than a million persons.

The "preacher with a pen" refuses to accept even voluntary pay for his sketches and cartoons and will mail them to any publication in the world that will print them. The expense of materials, production and mailing runs into several hundred dollars each month, which he pays from his own pocket with the exception of donations from friends.

The syndicated cartoons, which began as a hobby, take up three-fourths of Hamm's busy schedule. He and his wife do the entire mailing of the cartoons each week. He sends two matted cartoons each week to each publisher on his list in order to give editors a choice.

Why does Hamm pursue this expensive hobby? It is due simply to his strong conviction that "religion and not world-wide diplomacy will solve the problems of today."

He has combined his call to the gospel and his talent for art to reach a much greater public than would be possible from a single pulpit. At the same time, he has won several national awards for his patriotic and religious cartoons.

The Waco artist will speak before an expected 150 persons tomorrow night. Tickets for the dinner are $2. Ben Trotter, BSU president, will emcee the program.

Accounting Meet To Draw 200 Men

More than 200 accountants and business men from throughout the United States will attend the 12th annual Accounting Conference to be held Monday and Tuesday.

The opening session will be held at 9 a.m. Monday in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center with Vice President Earl Rudder giving the welcome address. Don Ransom of Convair Aircraft Corp. at Fort Worth, member of the National Association of Accountants, is conference chairman.

Mrs. Davis to Give Book Review

Mrs. L. L. Davis, businesswoman and book reviewer from Austin, presented a book review of "I'll Take Texas" by Mary Laswell for the A&M Women's Social Club this afternoon in the Assembly Room of the Memorial Student Center.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Drury College, and has reviewed books professionally for the past 15 years. She is a personal friend of the author and brought the fresh approach of the author's own comments to the group.

In His IMAGE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

How small man seems, compared to a mountain or even a tree. And yet, how great is his potential! Man can fashion a tree into a chair, a boat, or a house. And he can, if he wants, tunnel through a mountain.

Man has been created in God's own image; he has been given dominion over the earth and over all other creatures on the earth. Among the many gifts which God has given to man are intelligence, initiative and will power. But the use of these gifts must be motivated by the love of God if man is to be rewarded with peace and happiness.

Down through the ages, the Church has been teaching man that the misuse of intelligence and power brings ruin and self-destruction, while love-motivated use of his gifts brings joy, peace of mind and salvation.

Church attendance, prayer and worship will help anyone understand the proper relationship between God and man.
