

Aggies Meet Texas Today on Kyle Field

Texas' fabulous Elmer Rod, the winningest pitcher in Southwest Conference circles, is scheduled to toe the mound at Kyle Field today against Percy Sanderson, the tireless Aggie righthander.

Rod goes into today's contest with a 6-1 won-loss record opposing the 4-2 mark of Sanderson. Rod has struck out 28 men during season play while compiling an earned run average of 2.33. He has walked only nine men in his seven conference outings.

Sanderson is only a step behind in the strike out department, sending 2 men down swinging in 41 innings. The Aggie hurler has been wild at times, issuing 20 free bases to the opposing batters. His ERA is 1.63.

The 6-0 senior threw a total of 13 innings last weekend when he received credit for two wins over the TCU Frogs. Sanderson threw 12 innings in one game and came on in relief in the ninth frame in the other to record the win.

A&M has the edge in batting, boasting a team average of .279 as compared to the Steers' .262. Both teams have four sluggers batting over .300, with the Farmer's Randy Wortham leading the batsmen with a .385 average.

Wortham will be starting catcher for the Aggies in place of Gary Herrington who is out with an injured shoulder. If Herrington should get to take his turn at bat, he will be an edge for the Cadets with his .379 average.

Other Aggies batting over .300 are J. B. Carroll, .359; Stuff Davis, .300; and pitcher Wayne Schaper, .333. Schaper will be on the mound for the Cadets in Friday's contest.

The leading Longhorn sluggers are Pete Embry, .324; Wayne McDonald, .375; and George Myers, .333. McDonald leads the steers in runs-batted-in with 20 to his credit followed by Myers' 19.

Steer's Domination in Sprints Could Be Halted by Rice Owls

Although the Texas Longhorns are heavily favored to win their sixth Southwest Conference Track and Field championship here this weekend a Rice Owl sprinter is expected to furnish the big noise in the dashes.

The Longhorns have dominated the SWC sprints for the past several years but Taylor Jones, Rice sophomore, is favored to win both the 100 and 220-yard dash events Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field.

With Eddie Southern going after the quarter-mile record and not defending his two sprint titles Jones could become the first non-Longhorn to win the two dash events since A&M's Bill Stalter won the 100 and 220 in 1951.

Jones is a big, strong runner who finished second in last year's freshman division sprint races to Texas' Ralph Alspaugh. But Alspaugh has trailed Jones every time they have met this spring. If Jones continues his domination of Alspaugh this weekend Texas domination of the sprints will be ended, at least temporarily.

The Orange and White, though, are still top favorites to win both relays this spring and barring unrelayed events. The Longhorns carry the nation's best times in both relays this spring and barring unforeseen accidents or injuries will take both baton races again.

Southern, the 1956 Olympic ace, could possibly win seven events in

FISHERMEN WON'T TALK
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—State fish experts here don't agree that fishermen brag too much. Quite the opposite, they say. Because fishermen are reluctant to talk about their exploits, they pose a serious handicap to scientific fish arrangement. Fishermen probably keep things to themselves, they add, because big stories draw competition.

Automobiles are one of the safest places possible during an electrical storm, says the National Geographic Society.

this weekend's meet if the races were spread out over more days. But with the schedule as it is, he will run the sprint relay at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, the 440-yard dash at 3 p.m. and on the mile relay anchor at 5:05. He will forego the two sprints and both hurdle races, four events in which he owns school records at Texas.
