

Schaper Mobbed by Teammates after Win

The entire Aggie bench plus the players on the field and some spectators from the stands rush onto the field to pound the happy Wayne Schaper on the back and compliment him on his three-hit pitching against Rice yesterday.

When little J. B. Carroll snagged the fly out in center-field that spelled the last out for the Rice Owls, he took a firm grip on the ball and went running in towards the mound to join the Aggie bench congratulating Wayne Schaper on winning the game and cinching the Southwest Conference co-championship.

Schaper ended up with the ball that completed the game, but not for long. It seems the team had promised the winning ball to Coach Tom Chandler's wife, Willadean, to place upon the mantle.

CHEVY'S THE HOTTEST ONE AGAIN!

HOTTEST LOOKING, HOTTEST SAVING,

A V8-powered Impala Convertible... unmistakably '59!

HOTTEST SELLING OF THE LEADING LOW-PRICED 3

What we mean—this new Chevy's whipped up a one-car heat wave. Its fresh style caught on right away, of course. But—whether you prefer a V8 or 6—where Chevrolet really leaves the other cars in the shade is out on the road. A pair of Chevy 6's came in one-two in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. And the winning average was 22.38 m.p.g.

Why not drop down to your dealer's and see for yourself why Chevy's this year's hottest selling car?

Try the hot one—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!
