Awards Given Consolidated Athletic Stars

Edgar Feldman, A&M Consolidated's football and baseball star, received two top trophies at the annual Consolidated Athletic Banquet held Wednesday night in the A&M Presbyterian Church Youth Center and sponsored by the College Station Kiwanis Club.

Coach Dick Gardemal presented the outstanding back award to Feldman and the outstanding lineman award to Pete Rodriguez. Feldman also was named the Most Valuable Player in football and baseball.

Don Avera received the outstanding award in basketball.

Coach Larry Hayes announced letter awards in basketball and golf.

Art Bright recognized the trackmen, singling out Jim Wright, who finished second in the state in discus throw. Other track lettermen were Dee Smith and Bruce Thompson.

Baseball tri-captains, Rodriguez, Feldman and Kelly Parker were named by Coach Edsel Jones. Bobby Ross, John Wayne Todd, George Carroll, Ben Jackson, Mike Denison, Victor Clark, Richard Joyer and Richard Storms were the other baseball lettermen. Rogelio Nunez was recognized as the outstanding swimmer and Avera was recognized in tennis. Both men went to the state finals in their sport.

Dr. R. E. Leighton was master of ceremonies for the banquet and he introduced coaches Hayes, Gardemal, Bright, Jones and Ed Logan. School officials present were Principal E. P. Ozment and W. T. Riedel, school superintendent.

Joe Molder, who will coach Columbia University's soccer team next fall, was a center halfback on Oberlin's unbeaten 1952 team. He also captained the 11 that season.

"How can I be sure you've got some Camels?"

More buxom blondes with shipwrecked sailors insist on Camels than any other cigarette today. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best smoke. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. No wonder Camel is the No. 1 cigarette of all!

Leave the fads and fancy stuff to landlubbers...
