Awards Given To Six Profs For Top Work

Six A&M professors were presented awards for faculty achievement in a program in Guion Hall last week.

Dr. John H. Milliff, head of the Department of Veterinary Medicine; Dr. Wendell H. Nedderman, professor of civil engineering; Dr. Rudolph E. Leighton, professor of dairy science and Roy M. Wingren, professor of mechanical engineering won the outstanding classroom teacher's awards.

Each teaching citation stated, "In recognition of his ability personality and methods which have resulted in distinguished achievements in the teaching and in the inspiration of his students."

J. H. G. Thompson, professor of mechanical engineering, won the student relations award, which stated, "In recognition and in appreciation of his unselfish and sympathetic interest in the welfare of individual students which has been helpful and inspiring."

Henry J. Reinhard, professor of entomology, won the research award, which stated, "In recognition and appreciation of his distinguished achievement in research performed in addition to his duties as a teacher."

Each winner was presented with a $1,000 check from the Association of Former Students.

Three Conferences Scheduled For Coordinated Meet in June

Five hundred or more school teachers, administrators and supervisors are expected to attend three conferences that will be held here June 15-17.

The joint conference will include the 34th annual meeting of the Texas Assn. of County Superintendents, the 23rd annual meeting of the Texas School Administration Assn. and the ninth annual meeting of the Texas Assn. for Instructional Supervisors.

W. F. Hancock of Cuero is president of the Texas Assn. of County Superintendents, Fred W. Hunter of Beaumont is president of the Texas School Administration Assn. and John M. Stuart of Baytown is president of the Texas Assn. for Instructional Supervisors.

The general assembly for the three groups will be held in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center at 8:45 a. m. on June 15.

Aransas Pass Club Gives Hi-Fi System

The Aransas Pass Mother's Club has donated a high fidelity music system to the A&M College Hospital.

The system is a Carold custom background system and has been installed in the waiting room. Mrs. Hal Parks, secretary of the club, initiated the idea.

Two Freshmen Get Chemistry Awards

Two students in freshman chemistry have received awards based on their performance during the 1958-59 school year.

Robert W. Timme, Rt. 1, Victoria, won the Dow Chemical Freshman Scholarship in Chemistry. This award carries a stipend of $200. Timme had previously received the National Honor Society of Texas Chemical Council award. He plans to major in physics and has maintained a 2.3 grade point ratio.
