

Top A&M French Students Honored

The French government, through its consulate in Houston, has awarded French books to the following students for their outstanding work in French: Federico Rodriguez of Rio Grande City; Freddie Collins of

Foreign Students Must Clear Plans

All foreign nationals attending A&M must clear with the foreign student adviser, Robert O. Murray, Jr., as soon as their plans for the summer are known, said Murray.

Southwestern Veterinarians To Attend Conference Here

More than 225 veterinarians from throughout Texas and surrounding states will be on the A&M campus, June 3-5, for the 12th Annual Conference for Veterinarians.

Dr. R. D. Turk, professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Parasitology, is chairman of the conference which will be held under the sponsorship of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

A reception and coffee in the Assembly Room of the Memorial Student Center at 7:30 p.m. on June 3 will open the conference.

The first technical session will be held at 9 a.m. the following day with the visiting veterinarians to be welcomed to the campus by Dr. A. A. Price, dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

Dr. Lester Johnson, speaking on clinical problems with Shetland ponies, will open the technical phase of the program. Now a member of the staff of Oklahoma State University, Dr. Johnson received his doctor of veterinary medicine degree from A&M in 1950.

Other speakers at the June 4 sessions will be Dr. Wade O. Brinker, a veterinary surgeon; Dr. F. D. Gentry, small animal practitioner from Springfield, Mo.; and Dr. Lloyd M. Reedy, a poultry practitioner from Dallas. Dr. Brinker is on the staff of Michigan State University.

Among the visiting speakers on June 5 will be Maj. Charlie N. Barron, assistant chief of the Veterinary Pathology Section of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, Washington, D. C.; Dr. John Wilbur Jr., veterinarian in charge, Animal Disease Eradication Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Fort Worth; and Dr. A. B. Rich, director, Division of Veterinary Public Health, Austin.

Surgical and clinical demonstrations will be viewed by the visiting veterinarians on closed circuit television in the veterinary hospital on the afternoon of June 5.

Dr. Walter F. Juliff, general practitioner from San Angelo, will preside at a business meeting of the Texas Veterinary Medical Assn. He is president of the Association.

At 6:45 on the evening of June 4, the annual conference banquet will be held and the principal speaker will be Director J. E. Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The banquet program will include a program of entertainment by Dr. Gentry, and amateur magician.

During the veterinary conference, a program for the ladies will be held. Mrs. Richard H. Davis, wife of a member of the staff of the School of Veterinary Medicine, is chairman of the program.

The ladies' program will include a business meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Texas Veterinary Medical Assn. and a luncheon at the Briarcrest Country Club.

NEW UNITS

are already made up of men with the same major and because of the high academic achievement and retention of freshmen, said Col. Davis.

Squadron 19, the Civil Air Patrol outfit, will remain intact because of the amount of equipment it has purchased and because of its low losses in the freshman class, Col. Davis went on to say.

No plan has been formulated yet as to how the three units would be split to supply upperclassmen for the two new units to be formed from them, said Col. Davis.

Under the new plan the following organization will be used:
