

Award Dinner Held For Retiring Young

Dr. Vernon A. Young, head of the A&M Department of Range and Forestry, will retire from teaching on August 31.

Young has been at A&M since 1946 and is credited with developing some of the nation's top departments of range and forestry. During his 13 years at A&M, 240 students have graduated from the department and many hold important positions throughout the nation.

Young is a native of Utah. He holds a bachelors degree from Utah State Agricultural College, an M.S. from Iowa State College, and a Ph.D. degree from the University of Minnesota. He is a member of many professional organizations and the author of numerous technical and popular articles dealing with research in the field of range and forestry.

An honor award dinner was held in Dr. and Mrs. Young's honor at the Triangle Restaurant on July 25. Friends and former students from many sections of Texas and the nation were present for the occasion.

A. H. Walker, state agricultural leader for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the first student to receive an M.S. degree at A&M in range management served as master of ceremonies.

Bill Alred, head soil conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Washington D. C. and a lifelong friend of Young, told how Young's leadership had been responsible for the organization of the American Society of Range Management.

A&M Scientists Named to Society

Two scientists conducting research at A&M on amino sugars and organoboron compounds have been named to membership in the German Chemical Society.

They are Dr. H. K. Zimmerman, associate professor of chemistry, and Dr. Hans Weidmann, post-doctoral research Fellow in the Department of Chemistry.

Results of their research here are now being published in two scientific journals in Germany.

Dr. Weidmann, a graduate of the University of Mainz in Germany, is in this country on a Fellowship from the Welch Foundation.

Now the phone is part of the color scheme

THE CONVENIENCE of an additional phone where it's handy is wonderful, yes. But having it in the right color does wonders for the room—and keys perfectly into your décor.

And there are ten glowing colors to choose from—one to blend with any color scheme anywhere in the house. Choose from: Pink, Ivory, Beige, Green, Yellow, White, Turquoise, Red, Blue, Grey.
