

Master of Photography

Local Photographer Honored At Banquet in Los Angeles

Gene Sutphen, owner of Aggieldand Studio, was awarded the degree of Master of Photography by the Professional Photographers of America at the group's annual awards banquet July 29, at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sutphen resides at 1210 Munson Drive in College Station. The master's degree is one of the highest honors that a professional photographer can obtain. Under a point system administered by the 79-year-old association, the award can be achieved only after many years of consistently outstanding service to the profession as well as for general excellence of photographic artistry and craftsmanship.

The photographer earns merit points toward his master's degree by having his work selected for exhibits at the national conventions, for demonstrations and papers presented before national and state groups, for serving as an official and for instructing at the Winona School of Photography, Winona Lake, Indiana.

Of the 22,000 professional photographers in this country, only 375 persons have earned the title of master of photography. Two of Sutphen's photographs were selected to be shown at the 68th Annual Exposition of Professional Photography. Sutphen's work submitted were "Down to the Sea" and "The Fisherman."

More than 5,000 members of the association and their families attended the convention, and an estimated 10,000 of the general public viewed the exhibits.

C. E. Carter Named Top Cadet at Hood

Cadet Cecil E. Carter, a student at A&M, has been selected Outstanding Cadet of Company F at his year's ROTC Camp at Fort Hood.

Cadet Carter competed with some 140 other cadets in his company for this honor. His selection was based on leadership capabilities, attitude and military knowledge.

Cadet Carter is one of 1377 other ROTC cadets from colleges and universities throughout the 4th Army Area who will complete a six-weeks training period here this week. The camp is designed to give the future Army officers practical experience in the field and a first hand look at Army life.

A graduate of Gladewater High School, Carter is a mechanical engineering major at A&M and was a member of the freshman track team.

Army Intelligence School Slated for Fort Sam Houston

A two-week school for Army Intelligence personnel will begin Monday at Fort Sam Houston, Maj. Gen. R. G. Gard, 7th Army Corps (Reserve) commander, announced this week.

Col. Robert Melcher, College Station, Director of Training, will act as a department head for the school. Melcher, a Civilian Student Counselor and Former Student Advisor at A&M, will work with Lt. Col. Leonard J. Abbott, San Antonio, Director of Administration.

More than 400 Army Reservists, National Guard, and active Army men from five southwestern states will attend the courses. One hundred staff and faculty members, headed by Col. Fred Gremmel, Army Reservist from Boerne, Texas, will conduct the classes.

According to Col. William J. Elythe, 4th Army G-2, the School was started at Fort Sam Houston eleven years ago to train soldiers in photo interpretation, counter-intelligence, interrogation of prisoners of war, censorship and other subjects pertaining to Army Intelligence.

Col. Elythe said the school is a means by which intelligence personnel can receive instructions in the latest intelligence doctrine. After a soldier completes the basic intelligence course he may specialize in one segment of the courses. He said some of the specialized courses take as long as four years to complete.

The program of instruction is established by the Army Intelligence School located at Fort Holabird, Md., and is similar to a resident course given there. Students who complete an entire course at the 4th Army Area Intelligence School are eligible for award of a diploma from Fort Holabird for equivalent completion of a resident course.

Lions Club Hears Prof. R. L. Smith

Smith said the new Data Process Center, located south of the Animal Industry Building, will give A&M "one of the two or three such Centers in the United States." Some of the main projects of the Center will include teaching young men how to compute, research, study in nuclear science, prediction of weather, traffic study and college payroll checks.

Connie Mack Play To Open Thursday

Three players from College Station, Vic Clark, Ed Feldman and Pete Rodriguez, are on the Bryan Wheels team which will participate in the Connie Mack League Baseball Tournament at the Legion Field, Bryan, Aug. 13-15.

Sponsored by the Bryan Youth Assn., the tournament will also see teams from Oklahoma, Louisiana and another team from Texas.

Tickets for the tournament will be sold by local merchants and at the gate for $1. Seth Woods is president of the Bryan Youth Assn. and Buddy Moehlman is chairman.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	12	35-36
Monday	Psalms	84	1-6
Tuesday	Job	5	8-17
Wednesday	Isaiah	9	1-6
Thursday	Jeremiah	13	15-17
Friday	Lamentations	3	22-26
Saturday	John	14	6-13

Have you ever been deep in a woodland, where it is so dark that you think light can never enter? Then suddenly a shaft of sunlight strikes through the trees, and you find yourself standing in unexpected beauty.

Life can be like that, too. At the darkest moment, suddenly there can be light—if you have the power to see it. But that's an important "if." So many of us fumble through the days and years when the greatest candle of all, the Church, stands ready to light our path.

If you have been depriving yourself of the guiding strength of the Church, start now attending its services. It will help you find your way both in sunlight and in shadow.
