Advanced Petroleum Engineering Course To Be Offered at A&M During November

An advanced petroleum reservoir engineering course for petroleum industry personnel will be offered Nov. 1-13.

The course will be sponsored by the Department of Petroleum Engineering, with Robert L. Whiting, professor and head of the department, in charge.

"Instruction will consist of both lecture and supervised computation periods," Whiting said today.

"Outside reading and problem assignments will be made daily. Registration will be limited to twenty persons in order to insure quality of instruction and participation of registrants."

Classes will be held daily except Saturday and Sunday, in the Memorial Student Center. The total instruction time will comprise 70 hours for the two weeks course. "Although the course is not to be offered for College credit, registrants should have the equivalent of an engineering degree plus a minimum of one year experience in petroleum engineering work and a basic knowledge of rock and fluid properties," Whiting points out.

Principal instructors will be James W. Amyx and Daniel M. Bass. They will be assisted by Dr. John C. Calhoun, vice president for engineering, and Whiting.

Wings for a journey...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Vacation time—a trip; magic words, excitement! We study a map, read travel books, and listen eagerly to others who have taken the same journey. We anticipate seeing new places, new people, and unusual things. The routine of everyday will be forgotten. But sometimes a trip is impossible, and we must accept the hurry and anxiety of everyday living. Then it is that we need to plan a journey of mind and spirit—one that can lift us out of the ordinary into peace and communion with our God—one that refreshes and strengthens. For this journey we do not need an airplane. Instead, we use the powerful wings of prayer, of praise and trust. Come to Church and find these wings of the spirit, not for a brief journey—but for all eternity.
