NEW YORK (AP)—Puerto Rico plans a theater festival featuring a number of recent Broadway plays.

The fete, to be held in San Juan from Jan. 13 to March 8 is being managed by Barry B. Yellen, with Sidney Walters, a television director, serving as artistic supervisor. Negotiations are on for seven U.S. productions.

Although Switzerland has long been known as a land that keeps out of wars, its mountain brigades train constantly. Trainees keep their guns in their own houses, so the Swiss mountain army can start moving for defense in less than 48 hours.
