

SCONA V Combs State For Support

The fifth annual Student Conference on National Affairs, finance and program committee workers busily combed through every major city in Texas and portions of Mexico last summer on an extended finance tour to raise $20,800 through donations for the support of the December conference.

Through the efforts of these workers during the summer months, finance calls have already assured conference officials of approximately $17,000 of the needed amount.

The newest area in Texas covered by SCONA finance workers was the Wichita Falls district. J. S. Bridwell, Wichita Falls cattleman and oilman, was the first man from that area to give financial support to SCONA.

Six officials representatives of SCONA V journeyed to Mexico for a 10-day finance tour previous to fall enrollment. They returned with a total of $4,000 in donations compared to a sum of $750 solicited from that area last year for SCONA IV.

Making the finance tour through Mexico were Jarrell Gibbs, conference chairman; Kenneth Keller, Jim Fowler, Sid Heaton, Tom Hamilton and Tom Reid. Hamilton and Reid worked the Monterrey area while Gibbs, Keller, Fowler and Heaton flew to Mexico City to cover that area.

One of the sponsors from Monterrey, Salvador Ordiozala Gomez, director-manager of Fabrica de Ladrillos Industriales y Refractarios Harlusion-Walker-Flir Corporation, donated $1,000 to the conference.

Rogelio G. Soto, former SCONA associate, spoke to the Monterrey Rotary Club on activities of the conference and aided Hamilton and Reid with their finance calls.

Program arrangements are also now in full swing with R. S. S. Gunewardens, Ceylon ambassador to the United States, being the first to accept an invitation to speak at the SCONA V conference.

Dr. Nabor Carillo Flores, president of the National University of Mexico, has also tentatively accepted an invitation to be a guest speaker during the four-day program.

A round-table co-chairman roster, which is still incomplete at the present time, has been released by the SCONA office. Those named to fill the co-chairman positions up to date are Walter J. Buehler, president of St. Mary's University in San Antonio; Howard A. Cutler, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs at Pennsylvania State University; Miss Dorothy Holcomb, co-ordinator of adult education at the Fort Worth Public Library; Ross J. Pritchard, chairman of the International Studies department at Southwestern College, Memphis, Tenn.; and Dr. R. A. Tsanoff, professor emeritus of philosophy, Rice Institute.

Letters of invitation have been sent to 70 schools including seven to Mexico and to Canada.

"We hope to have a bigger and better SCONA V than any of the previous SCONA conferences held. My workers and I assure each student who attends any or all of the four-day sessions that it will be well worth the time spent," said Gibbs.

Players to Meet

The Aggie Players will meet tonight at 7:45 in the lower level of the Memorial Student Center.

Free Ice Cream

Free ice cream, free coffee, 25 girls and displays were among the attractions at the Memorial Student Center Open House last night. More than 1,200 Ags attended the affair which began after Yell Practice and concluded with a dance in the MSC Ballroom.

Aggie Mothers Discuss Various Special Projects

The first annual meeting of the current school year for the Federation of A&M Mothers' Clubs was held last Saturday on the campus with Mrs. Ellsworth S. Lorms of San Antonio presiding.

Thirty-five mothers attended the conference.

An organization of 45 active clubs in as many Texas cities, the federation met in the Memorial Student Center to discuss special projects to be undertaken by the various clubs.

Also on the agenda for the 13-member executive committee was the task of deciding to whom the federation's 1960 yearbook will be dedicated. Name of the person will not be disclosed until the yearbook is issued May 7, just prior to Mother's Day.

Members of the executive board present other than Mrs. Lorms, the president, were Mrs. Earl Rudder of College Station, honorary president, and Mrs. Ralph Plumlee of Dallas, vice president at large. Others were Mrs. Fred Cole of Corpus Christi, first vice president; Mrs. Joe Smith of Pasadena, second vice president; Mrs. C. B. Floyd of Fort Worth, third vice president; Mrs. H. E. Dew of Tyler, fourth vice president and Mrs. C. W. Cox of Beaumont, fifth vice president.

Also, Mrs. Charles R. Westmoreland of Houston, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Rosenthal of San Antonio, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert H. Johnston of Mercedes, treasurer; Mrs. R. C. Potts of Bryan, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Harvey F. Compton of Amarillo, historian.

Former prime minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada, who has returned to private law practice says he would not again accept public office. It had been reported that he might succeed Governor-General Vincent Massey.

Heye Speaks With Sophs

William B. Heye, cadet colonel of the Corps, explained the purposes of changes in the Corps this year in a meeting with the Class of '62 in Guion Hall Monday afternoon.

Heye said that A&M needs to change its training from forceful to helpful methods.

"A man's education and his career cannot be assessed in terms of money. It is our duty to see that every Aggie avails himself of the opportunity to obtain his education," he said.
