

Foreign Language Enrollment Rises

A Wee Bit Cooler

The move making short sleeves permissible for members of the Corps of Cadets has proven more comfortable for many. Bill Davis, wearing abbreviated sleeves, appears to absorb the heat a bit better than the long sleeves sported by, left to right, Edwin Mintz, Chuck Neely, Johnny Cooper, Larry Gordon and James Browder.

The Department of Modern Language hit a new high this year in enrollment as 733 students have been inserted into the classes of various foreign languages.

J. J. Woolket, head of the department, reported yesterday that the rolls have expanded by 173 students over last year. Last year, 560 were students in the department.

Also among the growth in the department is the huge increase in students taking Russian. Woolket said that there is usually just 18 or 20 students enrolled for the course, whereas this year the sections have grown to 108 pupils.

Woolket said that the department ordinarily has about six per cent of the student total at A&M. Now the department claims approximately 12 per cent of the enrollment in the college.

The breakdown of students show that 370 are registered in Spanish, 166 in German, 108 in Russian and 89 in French.

There are now seven instructors in the department, including Woolket.

The Salvation Army has 491 senior bands, with a membership of more than 6,000, in the United States.

A&M Social Club To Present Musical

The A&M Women's Social Club will present a musical program at their first meeting on Sept. 25, at 3 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center. The club will honor Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pipkin of Nacogdoches, Mrs. J. M. Nance, club reporter stated today.

Pipkin is the holder of a B. M. and M. M. degree in music theory from North Texas State College in Denton. As a youth he studied with the Viennese violinist, Ferdinand Dittler. Pipkin has taught music at Austin College in Sherman, Texas Tech in Lubbock, and in the Oklahoma City Public Schools, where for five years he played with the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra. Pipkin has also played with numerous other symphony orchestras, operas and ballet companies. At present, he is conducting the Stephen F. Austin State College Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Pipkin received her B. M. degree in music from NTSC in Denton, where she studied piano with Margaret Grubb and Silvio Sciotti. She has also studied piano at Oklahoma City University with Clarence Burg. Mrs. Pipkin is now a music teacher in Nacogdoches.

Following the program will be a social hour during which new and former members of the club will have a chance to become better acquainted.

All women whose husbands are employed by the A&M College or who are themselves employed by the College are invited to attend.

O. B. Williams Former SWC Head, Dies Wednesday

DALLAS—(AP)—Dr. O. B. Williams of the University of Texas, long prominent in football circles and former head of the Southwest Conference, died here Wednesday.

Dr. Williams, 64, was chairman of the bacteriology department and chairman of the athletic council at the University of Texas in Austin.

He had an intense interest in college athletics and was the personal friend of many players and coaches.

As athletic council chairman he played a large part in bringing head football coach Darrell Royal to Texas in 1956.

X. Bible, famed former coach of Texas and Texas A&M and former Texas athletic director, said, "In the passing of Dr. Williams, the conference, the university, the athletic department and all with whom he has been associated suffered a serious loss."

Dick LeBeau, Lou Groza and Dick Schafrath, members of the Cleveland Browns, played football at Ohio State.
