State's Offensive Formations Baffling to Struggling Aggies

Coach Jim Myers sent his Aggies through their toughest workout of the week yesterday with the Farmers desperately trying to iron out the wrinkles in their defensive play.

Michigan State's winged-T offense continues to baffle our boys," said Myers. Tuesday the head coach had shaken his head and termed the play "poor."

Halfback Jon Few added a light note to the practice, running at full steam through the sessions. Few missed suiting out for the Texas Tech game with an injured leg. He had not worked out a full week since fall drills opened.

Tackle Joe Bob Johnson should be the only Cadet first or second stringer missing the trip to Michigan. Johnson was injured Tuesday.

Randy Sims suited out in full uniform yesterday, but spent the afternoon limping around the practice field trying to loosen up his injured ankle. Sims is labeled as "doubtful" for the State game, but is scheduled to make the trip.

Basically the Aggies will start the same eleven that bowed down in defeat before the Red Raiders. Exceptions will be Bob Phillips replacing Jack Estes at end and sophomore Jesse McGuire stepping into the backfield. Joe Munson is slated to see action as a defensive end, moving up from his guard position.

The Farmers will leave College Station Friday morning by plane for East Lansing, arrive that afternoon and move onto the practice field around 4 p.m. for a short practice session. Myers has scheduled a light workout today on Kyle Field.

NEW YORK (AP)—With baseball fever boiling hot and pulses pounding, it's not easy this week to catch the heart-beat of the nation's gridirons.

Here's a stethoscopic try:
Texas Christian 20, Louisiana State 17: TCU's big line throttles Billy Cannon and pulls off upset of nation's No. 1 team.

Oklahoma 20, Northwestern 14: The Sooners' Prentice Gautt out-powers the Wildcats' Ron Burton on the ground.

Army 25, Boston College 7: the lonesome end's even more lonesome without Coach Earl Blaik and Pete Dawkins, but he's around.

Syracuse 14, Kansas 7: The loss of Bob Thomas cuts Syracuse's effectiveness, but the Orange continues to pack a punch.

Southern California 18, Pittsburgh 13: This could be the best Southern Cal team in the past five years.

Michigan State 21, Texas A&M 8: The Spartans bounce back from their 1958 losing campaign; the Aggies are rebuilding.

Texas 19, Maryland 14: The Longhorns have some sophomores hungry for the taste of touchdowns.

Illinois 14, Indiana 7: A head-basher between two old Big Ten rivals. Bill Brown gives the Illini the edge.

Notre Dame 21, North Carolina 7: The Irish start fresh against a team reeling from an opening defeat.

Air Force 20, Wyoming 7: The fly boys take off in the "wild blue yonder."

SOUTHWEST — Alabama 14, Houston 7; Oregon State 6, Texas Tech 0; Arkansas 13, Oklahoma State 12; North Texas State 14, Texas Western 0; Arizona 18, West Texas State 7.
